X-Kit Literature Series: FET Great Gatsby, 2005

Thinking about Movies Peter Lehman, William Luhr, 2018-10-01 A complete introduction to analyzing and enjoying a wide variety of movies for film students and movie lovers alike Thinking About Movies Watching Questioning Enjoying Fourth Edition is a thorough overview of movie analysis designed to enlighten both students and enthusiasts and heighten their enjoyment of films Readers will delve into the process of thinking about movies critically and analytically and find how doing so can greatly enhance the pleasure of watching movies Divided roughly into two parts the book addresses film studies within the context of the dynamics of cinema before moving on to a broader analysis of the relationship of films to the larger social cultural and industrial issues informing them

This updated fourth edition includes an entirely new section devoted to a complete analysis of the film adaptation of The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo along with many in depth discussions of important films such as Citizen Kane and Silence of the Lambs. The chapter on television integrates a major expansion distinguishing between television in the digital era of the convergence of the entertainment and technology industries in comparison to the era of broadcast analogue television. The final chapter places film within the current context of digital culture, globalization and the powerful rise of China in film production and exhibition. The authors clearly present various methodologies for analyzing movies and illustrate them with detailed examples and images from a wide range of films from cult classics to big budget award winning movies. This helps viewers see new things in movies and also better understand and explain why they like some better than others.

Thinking About Movies: Watching, Questioning, Enjoying Fourth Edition is ideal for film students immersed in the study of this important contemporary medium and art form as well as students and readers who have never taken a class on cinema before.

Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2020-12-28 Now in its fourth edition this popular textbook introduces prospective and practicing English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms. This new edition broadens its focus to cover important topics such as critical race theory, perspectives on teaching fiction, nonfiction and drama, the integration of digital literacy and teacher research for ongoing learning and professional development. It underscores the value of providing students with a range of different critical approaches and tools for interpreting texts. It also addresses the need to organize literature instruction around topics and issues of interest to today's adolescents. By using authentic dilemmas and contemporary issues, the authors encourage preservice English teachers and their instructors to raise and explore inquiry based questions that center on the teaching of a variety of literary texts, both classic and contemporary, traditional and digital.

New to the Fourth Edition

- Expanded attention to digital tools, multimodal learning and teaching online
- New examples of teaching contemporary texts
- Expanded discussion and illustration of formative assessment
- Revised response activities for incorporating young adult literature into the literature curriculum
- Real world examples of student work to illustrate how students respond to the suggested strategies
- Extended focus on infusing multicultural and diverse literature in the classroom

Each chapter is organized around specific questions that preservice teachers consistently raise as they prepare to become English language arts teachers. The authors model critical inquiry throughout the text by offering authentic case narratives that raise important considerations of both theory and practice. A companion website, a favorite of English education instructors, <http://teachingliterature.pbworks.com> provides resources and enrichment activities, inviting teachers to consider important issues in the context of their current or future classrooms.

Statement, 1988 The Great Gatsby in the Classroom David Dowling, 2006 Provides specific teaching strategies for each chapter and classroom tested oral, written, drawing and dramatic activities that help students make meaning out of the novel and engage them in its thematic and affective elements.

Literature and Language Teaching Gillian Lazar, 1993-01-28 Literature and Language Teaching is for teachers and trainers who want to incorporate literature into the language classroom It is suitable for teacher trainers teacher development groups or teachers working on their own This book contains tasks and activities which encourage reflection on some of the issues and debates involved in using literature in the language classroom and explore different approaches to using literature with teenage and adult learners at all levels It suggests criteria for selecting and evaluating materials for classroom use and identifies some of the distinctive features of novels short stories poems and plays so that these can be successfully exploited in the classroom A wide range of practical ideas and activities for developing materials is provided Tasks also encourage the observation and assessment of lessons using literacy texts and draw on English language material by a variety of authors from all over the world
