Hursh,2015-10-16 The End of Public Schools analyzes the effect of foundations corporations and non governmental organizations on the rise of neoliberal principles in public education By first contextualizing the privatization of education within the context of a larger educational crisis and with particular emphasis on the Gates Foundation and influential state and national politicians it describes how specific policies that limit public control are advanced across all levels Informed by a thorough understanding of issues such as standardized testing teacher tenure and charter schools David Hursh provides a political and pedagogical critique of the current school reform movement as well details about the increasing resistance efforts on the part of parents teachers and the general public Federal Register ,2013-06 The Knowledge Gap Natalie Wexler,2019-08-06 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America s education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country s frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn t one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum s intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge In the tradition of Dale Russakoff s The Prize and Dana Goldstein s The Teacher Wars Wexler brings together history research and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system one that fellow reformers journalists and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public including many parents remains unaware But The Knowledge Gap isn t just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education: Georgia Li Richard Ruochen,Kitchen Hannah,George Bert,Richardson Mary,Fordham Elizabeth,2019-12-19 This review developed in partnership with UNICEF provides Georgia with recommendations to strengthen its evaluation and assessment system to focus on helping students learn It will be of interest to countries that wish to strengthen their own evaluation and assessment systems and in turn improve educational outcomes The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1879 Empowering Teachers for Equitable and Sustainable Education Maria Teresa Tatto,2024-04-16 This groundbreaking book uses a comprehensive study of a novel Master of Education program to showcase how teachers can be engaged in authoritative equity based research using comparative education theory inquiry based pedagogy and the UNESCO SDGs as powerful frameworks By developing agency to advance culturally sustaining and humanizing practices it demonstrates how teachers can promote equity in their classrooms and communities The central premise of the program is that teachers must become comparative global and local action researchers to have agency in their practice and to become effective advocates for the cultural and learning needs of their students especially those in disadvantaged contexts or learning at the bottom of the pyramid By learning comparative framing and social science methods reviewing the literature to select verifiable educational research and developing and implementing a plan for action research this book offers new ideas for how teachers can effectively respond to recent UNESCO calls to reimagine and create promising futures locally By providing formative and summative evidence of culturally and socially transformative learning and showcasing how teacher educators can engage teachers in authoritative justice inquiry based research this book will appeal to scholars faculty and researchers of comparative education and teacher education and development Assessment in Geographical Education: An International Perspective Theresa Bourke, Reece Mills, Rod Lane, 2022-02-27 In recent years there has been increased attention paid to the importance of assessment in Geographical Education the chosen subject for this book Assessment is an important tool for collecting information about student learning and for providing timely data to inform key stakeholders including students teachers parents and policymakers To be effective assessment needs to be valid reliable and fair Validity is about ensuring that we assess what we claim we are assessing Reliability is about measuring performance and understanding in a consistent way Without validity and reliability assessment is unlikely to provide equitable opportunities for students to demonstrate what they know and can do As geography educators it is therefore important that we identify the core concepts and skills in geography that we want students to master We need a clear understanding of what the progression of learning looks like for each concept and skill so we can develop fit for purpose assessments that track and improve student learning While there is a substantial literature on evidence based assessment in secondary school contexts research exploring best practice assessment in geography is rare This is a concern given the distinctive nature of geography and the important role of assessment in the learning process This scholarly collection seeks to address this issue by connecting research in educational assessment with the domain of geography The chapters are written by leading researchers in Geographical Education from across the globe These chapters provide examples of innovation through the collective voices of geography teacher educator scholars from across Australia USA South Korea Germany Switzerland and Singapore What unifies the work in this book is that each chapter focuses on a key feature of the discipline of geography providing scholarly examples of evidence based practices for assessing student s knowledge and skills OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education: Serbia Maghnouj Soumaya, Salinas Daniel, Kitchen Hannah, Guthrie Caitlyn, Bethell George, Fordham Elizabeth, 2020-03-20 This review developed in cooperation with UNICEF provides Serbia with recommendations to help strengthen its evaluation and assessment system to focus on support for student learning It will be of interest to Serbia as well as other countries looking to make more effective use of their evaluation and assessment system to improve quality and equity and result in better outcomes for all students Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1879
