Ethnography for Designers Galen Cranz, 2016-02-26 Ethnography for Designers teaches architects and designers how to listen actively to the knowledge people have about their own culture. This approach gives structure to values and qualities. It does this by noting the terms and underlying structure of thought people use to describe aspects of their culture. Thus, ethno-semantic methods can help designers to enhance their professional responsibility to users and at the same time to feel fulfilled creatively. This book is a practical guide for those teaching social factors and social research methods to designers and for those using these methods in practice.

Making Sense of Messages Mark Stoner, 2019-11-13 Making Sense of Messages now in its second edition retains the apprenticeship approach which facilitates effectively learning the complex content and skills of rhetorical theory and criticism. A new chapter on The Rhetoric of Ignorance provides needed theory and examples that help students deal with the new rhetorical landscape marked by such discursive complexities as fake news, whataboutism, and denial of science that creates rather than reduces uncertainty in public argument. A new chapter, Curating and Analyzing Multimodal Mediated Rhetoric, deals with problems of media criticism in the digital age. It provides theory, models of application, and commentary that help novice critics understand and mindfully practice criticism that leads to insight, not mere opinion. Throughout the book, extended and updated examples and commentaries are designed to promote novice to expert agency in students. This textbook is ideal for introductory courses in
