The Heirs of the Prophet Liyakat N. Takim, 2012-02-01 2007 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title After the death of the Prophet Muhammad different religious factions within the Muslim community laid claim to the Prophet's legacy Drawing on research from Sunni and Shi'ite literature Liyakat N Takim explores how these various groups including the caliphs scholars Sufi holy men and the Shi'ite imams and their disciples competed to be the Prophetic heirs The book also illustrates how the tradition of the heirs of the Prophet was often a polemical tool used by its bearers to demand obedience and loyalty from the Muslim community by imposing an authoritative rendition of texts beliefs and religious practices Those who did not obey were marginalized and demonized While examining the competition for Muhammad's charismatic authority Takim investigates the Shi'ite self understanding of authority and argues that this was an important factor in the formation of a distinct Shi'ite leadership The Heirs of the Prophet also provides a new understanding of textual authority in Islam by examining authority construction and the struggle for legitimacy evidenced in Islamic biographical dictionaries

Daily Life in the Medieval Islamic World

James E. Lindsay, 2005-06-30 From the time of its birth in Mecca in the 7th century C.E. Islam and the Islamic world rapidly expanded outward extending to Spain and West Africa in the west and to Central Asia and the Indian Subcontinent in the east An examination of the daily life in these Islamic regions provides insight into a civilized powerful and economically stable culture where large metropolitan centers such as Damascus Baghdad and Cairo thrived in many areas including intellectual and scientific inquiry In contrast with medieval Europe there is little common knowledge in the West of the culture and history of this vibrant world as different from our own in terms of the political religious and social values it possessed as it is similar in terms of the underlying human situation that supports such values This book provides an intimate look into the daily life of the medieval Islamic world and is thus an invaluable resource for students and general readers alike interested in understanding this world so different and yet so connected to our own Chapters include discussions of the major themes of medieval Islamic history Arabia the world of Islamic origins warfare and politics the major cities of

Damascus Baghdad and Cairo religious rituals and worship and a section on curious and entertaining information Author James E Lindsay further provides a focused look at the daily lives of urban Muslims during this time period and of their interactions with Jews Christians and other Muslims Timelines tables including a calendar conversion to align the Islamic lunar and the Christian solar dates and a dynastic table highlighting the major genealogies of the ancient ruling families a bibliography and a glossary of important dates and technical terms are also provided to assist the reader An Illustrated Guide to Ziyarah in Iraq ,2020-02-15 A travel guide for pilgrims visiting the holy Sh ah cities in Iraq Shrines of the 'Alids in Medieval Syria Stephennie Mulder,2019-08-06 This book explores the relationship between Sunnis and Shi is as expressed in the patronage and architecture of shrines and links them to the wider pan Islamic landscape of interconnected pilgrimage sites created from these acts of patronage Studia Islamica ,2004 An Illustrated Guide to Ziyarah in Iraq ,2020-03-04 Routledge Handbook of Islamic Ritual and Practice Oliver Leaman,2022-06-08 Ritual and practice are one of the most distinctive features of religion and they are linked with its central beliefs Islam is no exception here and this Handbook covers many aspects of those beliefs and practices It describes the variety of what takes place but mainly why and what the implications of both the theory and practice have for our understanding of Islam The book includes accounts of prayer food pilgrimage mosques and the various legal and doctrinal schools that exist within Islam with the focus on how they influence practice The volume is organized in terms of texts groups practices places and others An attempt has been made to discuss the wide range of Muslim ritual and practice and provide a sound guide to this significant aspect of the religious life of one of the largest groups of believers in the world today Guide to the Organization of Meetings on UAP ,1985 Islam and the Devotional Object Richard J. A. McGregor,2020-05-28 A new history of Islamic practice told through the aesthetic reception of medieval religious objects The Cult of Saints in Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages Paul Antony Hayward,James Howard-Johnston,1999 This book contains eleven essays prefaced by a general introduction on a set of related themes the characteristic traits and diverse functions of holy men the fashioning of saints out of a small minority of holy men and a number of other individuals of high social status but with more dubious spiritual credentials the literary processes involved in the construction of hagiographical texts the role of hagiography in the creation and diffusion of cults and the worldly interests and other purposes which were served by hagiographical texts and the cults which they propagated These themes are explored across a wide range of social and cultural milieux extending from the late antique east Mediterranean through the early medieval Frankish world and Byzantium to Russia and Islam in the high middle ages The work of Peter Brown in particular his article The Rise and Function of the Holy Man in Late Antiquity first published in 1971 forms a constant point of reference acknowledged by the contributors as having irradiated the whole field with fresh provocative and illuminating ideas
