Education Outlook ,1908 Looking Forward Through the Lifespan: Developmental Psychology Candida C Peterson,2013-12-17 When a local context really makes the difference The new edition of this original Australian text continues to offer the most balanced coverage of theory and research for Australian students and educators and appeals to students from many backgrounds It covers the domains of development including neurological cognitive social physical and personality The text is organised chronologically by chapter Within each chapter content is organised topically This structure allows for a degree of flexibility and lecturers can choose the way they wish to approach the content whether it is topically or chronologically Essentials of Research Methods for Educators Anastasia Kitsantas,Timothy J. Cleary,Maria K. DiBenedetto,Suzanne E. Hiller,2024-02-16 Essentials of Research Methods for Educators is a comprehensive resource designed for future educational professionals It provides an in depth overview of data literacy and research methods using concrete examples for better understanding The book covers qualitative quantitative and mixed methods research and offers a highly scaffolded approach making research projects manageable Psychological Responses to Violations of Expectations: Perspectives and Answers from Diverse Fields of Psychology Mario Gollwitzer,Anna Thorwart,Karin Meissner,2018-03-19 From Pavlov s dog expecting food when hearing a bell to stereotypes as expectations about other people s behaviour from Bandura s self efficacy as expectation for success and failure of one s own behaviour to the predictive brain concept in current perception theories expectations have been a central construct in different areas of psychological research In each of these areas specific concepts theoretical approaches and empirical methods have been developed to explain when and why expectations persist and when they do not. Many theories assume that expectations are likely to change in the face of disconfirming evidence. However, sometimes expectations persist even though they are empirically violated, suggesting that they can be sticky under certain circumstances. But what are these circumstances? And what are the psychological mechanisms that can explain why and when expectations persist or change after being confronted with expectation violating evidence? Each contribution of the current book offers insights into individuals' reactions to violations of expectations. They show that many pieces of the puzzle have been collected in the many sub disciplines of psychology and that putting them together in an integrative fashion stays a fascinating enterprise.

Becoming a Nurse

Derek Sellman, Paul Snelling, 2014-09-09. The guidelines and skills required to become a nurse are always changing and it can be difficult to stay up to date with the current standards. This book has been specifically designed to address the main skills you need to meet NMC requirements. Becoming a Nurse will demystify what you need to know while preparing you to meet NMC standards and become a confident practicing professional. This book is ideal for both pre registration and practicing nurses. It is an excellent resource to prepare you for your programme or to refresh your knowledge of current NMC standards. User friendly language describes the key NMC standards to Become a Nurse. Personal and professional development. Professional and ethical practice. Care delivery. Care management. 17 overarching standards of the NMC. More readable than texts on single topics such as ethics or management, it is also a better preparation for the accountability of Registration than clinically oriented books usually are. Would you recommend it? Resoundingly yes. Sue McBean, University of Ulster, THES Feb 2010.

Research and Evaluation in Education and Psychology, Donna M. Mertens, 2023-11-18. Identify, evaluate, and practice good research using Research and Evaluation in Education and Psychology: Integrating Diversity With Quantitative, Qualitative, and Mixed Methods by renowned scholar Donna M. Mertens. This introductory research methods text incorporates the viewpoints of various research paradigms into its descriptions of qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods, as well as program evaluation. The work covers five major paradigms: post-positivist, constructivist, transformative, pragmatic, and Indigenous. Special emphasis on conducting research with culturally complex communities based on the perspectives of feminists, ethnic/racial minorities, and people with disabilities is a hallmark of this text. In each chapter, the author carefully explains each step of the research process from the literature review to analysis and reporting. Additionally, each chapter includes a published sample study and abstract to illustrate the concepts discussed in that chapter. The Sixth Edition includes more on community engagement, recent advances in mixed methods, new applications of theoretical frameworks, and the latest research examples. Citations and references have all been updated to reflect the seventh edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. Included with this title: LMS Cartridge. Import this title's instructor resources into your school's learning management system (LMS) and save time. Don't use an LMS?
