US HISTORY: THE CIVIL WAR ERA: A NATION DIVIDED AND REBORN (1844-1877)

Summarize the paragraph in one or two bullet points.

QUEST LEVEL

The effect that the Civil War had on the United States (1861-1865)

The mid-19th century in the United States was dominated by the burning question of the Civil War, a conflict that would determine the nation's very soul. From 1844 to 1877, the country was torn apart by the issue of slavery, which led to the outbreak of the Civil War in 1861. The war ended in 1865, but the process of Reconstruction was still in progress.

The abolition of slavery was a major achievement of the Civil War. The 13th Amendment to the Constitution, passed in 1865, outlawed slavery and involuntary servitude, except as punishment for a crime. This was a landmark decision that changed the course of American history.

The Reconstruction era was a period of significant change for the United States. The federal government took steps to rebuild the South and to ensure that the rights of all citizens were protected. The 14th Amendment, passed in 1868, granted citizenship to all persons born or naturalized in the United States, including former slaves. The 15th Amendment, passed in 1870, prohibited discrimination on the basis of race in voting. These amendments were a major step towards equality, but the process of Reconstruction was still ongoing.
