

Heart of Darkness Reading Comprehension Test

Directions: Answer each question in a well-developed paragraph, being sure to address all aspects of each prompt. If the question asks you for evidence from the text, make reference to specific incidents in the text. If you are asked for specific passages, you must use quotes from the text. You may use your notes, articles and one page of notes in completing this test.

1) "The consciousness of these living people in that bush, so silent, so quiet—so silent and quiet as the ruined house on the hill—made me uneasy. There was no sign on the face of nature of this amazing tale that was not as much told as suggested to me in desolate exclamations, uncompleted by words, in interrupted phrases, in hints ending in deep sighs. The words were unworded, like a mark—heavy, like the closed door of a prison—they looked with their air of hidden knowledge, of patient expectation, of unspeakable silence." (Conrad 1.87)

"I was anxious to deal with this shadow by myself alone—and to this day I don't know why I was so jealous of sharing with any one the peculiar blackness of that experience." (Conrad 1.87)

"I actually left the track and ran in a wide semi-circle (I really believe shrieking to myself) so as to get in front of that evil, of that motion I had seen—if indeed I had seen anything. I was circumventing Kurtz as though it had been a boyish game." (Conrad 1.43-1.48)

For much of the novel, Marlow speaks of his fear of the forest. What does the forest symbolize to him? In the second two passages, we see Marlow enter the forest for the first time while going after Kurtz. What is the significance of his willingness to enter the forest at this moment?

2) "I pulled the string of the whistle...the three red shapes had fallen flat, face down on the shore, as though they had been shot dead. Only the barbarous and expert women did not so much as blink, and stretch regally her bare arms after us over the swollen and glittering river." (Conrad 1.51)

"She came forward, all in black, with a pale head, floating towards me in the dark. She was in mourning. It was more than year since his death, more than a year since the news came; she seemed as though she would remember and never forget." (Conrad 1.60)

Conrad shows a stark contrast between the white and native women in Kurtz' life. Compare and contrast Conrad's presentation of how these women deal with the loss of their relationship with Kurtz. What are the underlying societal messages?

3) Throughout the reading of the novel you have tracked the presence of light and darkness. What conclusions have you drawn about their significance and symbolism? Use examples from the novel to support your claims.
