Mainstreaming Black Power Tom Adam Davies, 2017-04-11 Mainstreaming Black Power upends the narrative that the Black Power movement allowed for a catharsis of black rage but achieved little institutional transformation or black uplift Retelling the story of the 1960s and 1970s across the United States and focusing on New York Atlanta and Los Angeles this book reveals how the War on Poverty cultivated black self determination politics and demonstrates that federal state and local policies during this period bolstered economic social and educational institutions for black control Mainstreaming Black Power shows more convincingly than ever before that white power structures did engage with Black Power in specific ways that tended ultimately to reinforce rather than challenge existing racial class and gender hierarchies This book emphasizes that Black Power's reach and legacies can be understood only in the context of an ideologically diverse black community

Theo, MS. Social Work,2015-09-13 President Hoover in his 1929 State of the Union message proposed consolidating agencies administering veteran s benefits The following year Congress created the Veterans Administration by uniting three bureaus the previously independent Veterans Bureau the Bureau of Pensions and the National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers President Hoover signed the executive order establishing the VA on July 21 1930 Hines who had served since 1923 as director of the Veterans Bureau was named the first administrator of the agency Monopolized David Dayen,2020-06-09 From the airlines we fly to the food we eat how a tiny group of corporations have come to dominate every aspect of our lives by one of our most intrepid and accomplished journalists If you re looking for a book that will get your heart pumping and your blood boiling and that will remind you why we re in these fights add this one to your list Senator Elizabeth Warren on

David Dayen's Chain of Title Over the last forty years our choices have narrowed our opportunities have shrunk and our lives have become governed by a handful of very large and very powerful corporations Today practically everything we buy everywhere we shop and every service we secure comes from a heavily concentrated market This is a world where four major banks control most of our money four airlines shuttle most of us around the country and four major cell phone providers connect most of our communications If you are sick you can go to one of three main pharmacies to fill your prescription and if you end up in a hospital almost every accessory to heal you comes from one of a handful of large medical suppliers Dayen the editor of the American Prospect and author of the acclaimed Chain of Title provides a riveting account of what it means to live in this new age of monopoly and how we might resist this corporate hegemony Through vignettes and vivid case studies Dayen shows how these monopolies have transformed us inverted us and truly changed our lives at the same time providing readers with the raw material to make monopoly a consequential issue in American life and revive a long dormant antitrust movement

Japan's Effectiveness as a Geo-Economic Actor Yuka Koshino, Robert Ward, 2022-03-27 Geo economic strategy deploying economic instruments to secure foreign policy aims and to project power has long been a key element of statecraft In recent years it has acquired even greater salience given China's growing antagonism with the United States and the willingness of both Beijing and Washington to wield economic power in their confrontation This trend has particular significance for Japan given its often tense political relationship with China which remains its largest trading partner While Japan's post war geo economic performance often failed to match its status as one of the world's largest economies more recently Tokyo has demonstrated increased geo economic agency and effectiveness In this Adelphi book Yuka Koshino and Robert Ward draw on multiple disciplines including economics political economy foreign policy and security policy and interviews with key policymakers to examine Japan's geo economic power in the context of great power competition between the US and China They examine Japan's previous underperformance how Tokyo's understanding of geo economics has evolved and given constraints on its national power projection what actions Japan might feasibly take to become a more effective geo economic actor Their conclusions will be of direct interest not only for all those concerned with Japanese grand strategy and the Asia Pacific but also for those middle powers seeking to navigate great power competition in the coming decades
