To Steal a Book Is an Elegant Offense William P. Alford, 1995-03-01 This study examines the law of intellectual property in China from imperial times to the present It draws on history politics economics sociology and the arts and on interviews with officials business people lawyers and perpetrators and victims of piracy The author asks why the Chinese with their early bounty of scientific and artistic creations are only now devising legal protection for such endeavors and why such protection is more rhetoric than reality on the Chinese mainland In the process he sheds light on the complex relation between law and political culture in China The book goes on to examine recent efforts in the People's Republic of China to develop intellectual property law and uses this example to highlight the broader problems with China's program of law reform The Global Governance of Knowledge Peter Drahos, 2010-01-28 Patent offices around the world have granted millions of patents to multinational companies Patent offices are rarely studied and yet they are crucial agents in the global knowledge economy Based on a study of forty five rich and poor countries that takes in the world's largest and smallest offices Peter Drahos argues that patent offices have become part of a globally integrated private governance network which serves the interests of multinational companies and that the Trilateral Offices of Europe the USA and Japan make developing country patent offices part of the network through the strategic fostering of technocratic trust By analysing the obligations of patent offices under the patent social contract and drawing on a theory of nodal governance the author proposes innovative approaches to patent office administration that would allow developed and developing countries to recapture the public spirit of the patent social contract Federal Register, 1989-11 The Chu Silk Manuscripts from Zidanku, Changsha (Hunan Province) Li Ling, 2020-03-15 The Silk Manuscripts from Zidanku Changsha Hunan are the only preImperial Chinese manuscripts on silk found to date Dating to the turn from the 4th to the 3rd centuries BC Late Warring States period they contain several short texts concerning basic cosmological concepts arranged in a diagrammatic arrangement and surrounded

Republican era to the collectors of plastic and cardboard in Beijing's neighborhoods today have been represented as undisciplined polluting and technologically primitive due to the municipal government's failure to control them. The result Joshua Goldstein argues is the repeatedly reinscribed exclusion of waste workers from formations of modern urban citizenship as well as the intrinsic liminality of recycling itself as an economic process. Congressional Record, The Washington Post Index, 1989 People, 2008 Popular Science, 2004-12.
