Fault Lines Nancy Huston:

Fault Lines Nancy Huston, 2018-09-01 A brilliantly written family epic that won France's Prix Femina and was shortlisted for the Orange Prize. An immaculate novel. The Guardian. In a profound and poetic story internationally acclaimed and bestselling author Nancy Huston traces four generations of a single family from present day California to WWII era Germany. Fault Lines begins with Sol, a gifted terrifying child whose mother believes he is destined for greatness partly because he has a birthmark like his dad, his grandmother and his great grandmother. When Sol's family makes an unexpected trip to Germany, secrets begin to emerge about their history during World War II. It seems birthmarks are not all that's been passed down through the bloodlines. Closely observed, lyrically told and epic in scope, Fault Lines is a touching, fearless and unusual novel about four generations of children and their parents. The story moves from the West Coast of the United States to the East, from Haifa to Toronto to Munich, as secrets unwind back through time until a devastating truth about the family's origins is reached. Huston tells a riveting, vigorous tale in which love, music and faith rage against the shape of evil. Huston's powerful novel combines the pacing of a thriller with the emotional intricacies that are the hallmark of the best family stories. Booklist starred review

Fault Lines by Nancy Huston Jo Case, 2008      Culture Wars in British Literature Tracy J. Prince, 2012-09-21 The past century's culture wars that Britain has been consumed by, but that few North Americans seem aware of, have resulted in revised notions of Britishness and British literature. Yet literary anthologies remain anchored to an archaic Anglo-English interpretation of British literature. Conflicts have been played out over specific national vs. British identity; some residents prefer to describe themselves as being from Scotland, England, Wales or Northern Ireland instead of Britain. In debates over immigration, race, ethnicity, class and gender and in arguments over British literature, these debates are strikingly detailed in such chapters as The Difficulty Defining Black British British Jewish Writers and Xenophobia and the Booker Prize Connections are also drawn between civil rights movements in the U S and UK This generalist cultural study is a lively read and a fascinating glimpse into Britain s changing identity as reflected in 20th and 21st century British literature

Black Dance Nancy Huston, 2014-09-09 A dying screenwriter conjures a fascinating past in a novel as musical as a Bach prelude from the Prix Femina winning author of Fault Lines Elle France Renowned screenwriter Milo Noirlac is dying As he lies in his hospital bed voices from his past and present come to him each taking on the rhythm of his favorite Brazilian fight dance the capoeira Seated next to him is Milo s director co writer and lover Paul Schwartz who coaxes Milo through the complex tale that will be their final masterpiece his life story From the abuse Milo suffered as a foster child to the loss of his beloved grandfather s priceless library his imagination brings to life several generations of ancestors voices in French and English German and Dutch Cree and Gaelic There s his Irish grandfather a would be poet classmate of Jimmy Joyce and agitator against British occupation Awinita Milo s biological mother an Indian teen prostitute Eug nio a Brazilian street child whom Milo finds and fosters As each voice cascades through Milo s memory a fragment of history both personal and global falls into place

The Cambridge Companion to French Literature John D. Lyons, 2015-11-26 In this authoritative and accessible account of French literature sixteen essays by leading specialists offer provocative insights into French literary culture its genres movements themes and historic turning points including the cultural and linguistic challenges of today s multi ethnic France The French have over the centuries invented and reinvented writing from the Arthurian romances of Chr tien de Troyes to Montaigne s Essays which gave the world a new literary form and a new standard for writing about personal thought and experience from the highly polished tragedies of French classicism to the satirical novels of the Enlightenment from Proust s explorations of social and sexual mores to the New Novel of the late twentieth century and from Baudelaire s urban poetry to today s poetic experiments with sound and typography The broad scope of this Companion which goes beyond individual authors or periods enables a deeper appreciation for the distinctive literature of France

Horrible Mothers Loïc Bourdeau, 2019-12-01 For too long the main narratives of motherhood have been oppressive and exclusionary frequently ignoring issues of female identity especially regarding those not conforming to traditional female stereotypes Horrible Mothers offers a variety of perspectives for analyzing representations of the mother in francophone literature and film at the turn of the twenty first century in North America including Qu bec Ontario New England and California Contributors reexamine the horrible mother paradigm within a broad range of sociocultural contexts from different locations to broaden the understanding of mothering beyond traditional ideology The selections draw from long established scholarship in women s studies as well as from new developments in queer studies to make sense of and articulate strategies of representation to show how contemporary family models are constantly evolving reshaping and moving away from heteronormative expectations and to reposition mothers as subjects occupying the center of their own narrative rather than as objects The contributors engage narratives of mothering from myriad perspectives referencing the works of writers or filmmakers such as Marguerite Andersen Nelly Arcan Gr goire Chabot Xavier Dolan Nancy Huston and Lucie Joubert Parenting/Internet/Kids: Domesticating Technologies Fiona Joy Green,Jaqueline McLeod Rogers,2022-07-07 Parenting Internet Kids with three key terms slashed together conveys the idea that the practice of parenting may extend both to the Internet and to our children to the extent that both require attention care and forms of regulation and in turn provide support and enjoyment While the triadic title is somewhat playful it also strikes a serious note and introduces layered possibilities we are not simply raising children who have grown up in the internet age but also Domesticating Technologies by managing the computer relatively young in age too having established itself in homes in the 1980s Including perspectives from scholars and parents living in Australia Canada India Japan the UK and the USA the collection examines how the intimate presence of computer technology in our homes and on our bodies affects not only mothers and parenting but family life more broadly Carole: What We Leave Behind C. Clément Fabre,2023-08-30T00:00:00+02:00 Cl ment and his brother travel to Istanbul with the goal of finding the grave of Carole the first born child of their maternal grandparents Carole died shortly after her birth and just a few years before her parents Armenians in Istanbul would leave for France Cl ment interviews his grandparents and his mother aware that certain things are remaining unsaid After numerous unsuccessful searches in Turkey he begins to realize that what he and his brother have accomplished is a work of introspection rather than an investigation into an established fact A magnificent literary exploration accomplished with visual flair of our conscious and unconscious realities of the influence relationships and family history hold over our psyches

Room Emma Donoghue, 2010-09-13 The award winning bestseller that became one of the most talked about and memorable novels of the decade Room is utterly gripping a heart stopping novel San Francisco Chronicle Held captive for years in a small shed a woman and her precocious young son finally gain their freedom and the boy experiences the outside world for the first time To five year old Jack Room is the world It s where he was born it s where he and his Ma eat and sleep and play and learn At night his Ma shuts him safely in the wardrobe where he is meant to be asleep when Old Nick visits Room is home to Jack but to Ma it s the prison where she has been held for seven years Through her fierce love for her son she has created a life for him in this eleven by eleven foot space But with Jack s curiosity building alongside her own desperation she knows that Room cannot contain either much longer Room is a tale at once shocking riveting exhilarating a story of unconquerable love in harrowing circumstances and of the diamond hard bond between a mother and her child

Missing Jenny Edkins, 2011-09-06 Stories of the missing offer profound insights into the tension between how political systems see us and how we see each other The search for people who go missing as a result of war political violence genocide or natural disaster reveals how forms of governance that objectify the person are challenged Contemporary political systems treat persons instrumentally as objects to be administered rather than as singular beings the apparatus of government recognizes categories not people In contrast relatives of the missing demand that authorities focus on a particular person families and friends are looking for someone who to them is unique and irreplaceable In Missing Jenny Edkins highlights stories from a range of circumstances that shed light on this critical tension the aftermath of World War II when millions in Europe were displaced the period following the fall of the World Trade Center towers in Manhattan in 2001 and the bombings in London in 2005 searches for military personnel missing in action the thousands of political disappearances in Latin America and in more quotidian circumstances where people walk out on their families and disappear of their own volition When someone goes missing we often find that we didn t know them as well as we thought there is a sense in which we are missing even to our nearest and dearest and even when we are present not absent In this thought provoking book Edkins investigates what this more profound missingness might mean in political terms Donald W.

Winnicott Laura Dethiville, 2018-04-24 Winnicott was continually innovating inventing and proposing unexpected solutions in his analytical work whenever he noticed that clinical experience didn t stick to the theory This approach can make his work seem rather diffuse with concepts that are sometimes confusing and needing to be clarified Laura Dethiville has taken on the task of re evaluating and explaining the principal rudiments of his theories such as the transitional object the self the false self the importance of environment and dissociation She also reveals how Winnicott showed himself to be a forerunner in the care of symptomatic illness in our society including his innovative treatment of loss of identity anorexia or bulimia delinquency psychosomatic illness and school disorders In this book the author has succeeded in avoiding psychoanalytic jargon and although initially aimed at psychoanalysts it is also accessible for educators child carers paediatricians and to all

Knox, 2016-06-01 Race on Display in 20th and 21st Century France argues that the way France displayed its colonized peoples in the twentieth century continues to inform how minority authors and artists make immigrants and racial and ethnic minority populations visible in contemporary France Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment Odile Cazenave, Patricia Célrier, 2011-02-02 By looking at engage literature from the recent past when the francophone African writer was implicitly seen as imparted with a mission to the present when such authors usually aspire to be acknowledged primarily for their work as writers Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment addresses the current processes of canonization in contemporary francophone African literature Odile Cazenave and Patricia Célrier argue that aesthetic as well as political issues are now at the forefront of debates about the African literary canon as writers and critics increasingly acknowledge the ideology of form Working across genres but focusing on the novel the authors take up the question of renewed forms of commitment in this literature Their selected writers range from Mongo Beti Ousmane Sembène and Aminata Sow Fall to Boubacar Boris Diop Virginie Tadjo Alain Mabanckou and Léonora Miano among others Vietnam and the Colonial Condition of French Literature Leslie Barnes, 2014-12-01 Vietnam and the Colonial Condition of French Literature explores an aspect of modern French literature that has been consistently overlooked in literary histories the relationship between the colonies their cultures languages and people and formal shifts in French literary production Starting from the premise that neither cultural identity nor cultural production can be pure or homogenous Leslie Barnes initiates a new discourse on the French literary canon by examining the work of three iconic French writers with personal connections to Vietnam André Malraux Marguerite Duras and Linda Le In a thorough investigation of the authors linguistic metaphysical and textual experiences of colonialism Barnes articulates a new way of reading French literature not as an inward looking homogenous monolingual tradition but rather as a tradition of intersecting and interdependent peoples cultures and experiences One of the few books to focus on Vietnam's position within francophone literary scholarship Barnes challenges traditional concepts of French cultural identity and offers a new perspective on canonicity and the division between French and francophone literature The Art of Making Children François Ansermet, 2018-05-08 This book explores the issues that surround medically assisted reproduction It addresses the place of destiny including how to think about individual destinies in an age of increasingly accessible gene sequencing paired with a growing link between procreation and prediction Infrared Nancy Huston, 2012-07-03 A woman explores complex family relationships and discovers truths about herself in this sensual intricately woven offering from award winning Huston Kirkus Reviews Nancy Huston follows her bestselling novel Fault Lines winner of the Prix Femina with an intensely provocative story about a passionate yet emotionally wounded woman's sexual explorations After a troubled childhood and two failed marriages Rena Greenblatt has achieved success as a photographer She specializes in infrared techniques that expose her pictures otherwise hidden landscapes and capture the raw essence of deeply private moments in the lives of her subjects Away from her lover and stuck in Florence Italy with her infuriating stepmother and her aging unwell father Rena confronts not only the masterpieces of the Renaissance but the banal inconveniences of a family holiday At the same time she finds herself traveling into dark and passionate memories that will lead to disturbing revelations Infrared is both an explicitly bold story of how sexuality is influenced by childhood family and culture and a portrait of a woman coming to terms with the end of her father s life With exceptional flair and intelligence Huston fearlessly investigates the links between family intimacies and our collective lives between destruction and creation Huston shows her mastery of complicated structure wide cultural knowledge and brilliant assured portraiture The Globe and Mail Top 100 Books of the Year There is something eminently subversive in Nancy Huston s latest novel A forty five year old woman dares to talk about her sexuality her immense desire for men But even more Infrared is a staggering expression of the power of art as salvation Voir

A Poetics of Forgiveness J. Scott, 2010-03-29 Despite recent interest in forgiveness and reconciliation relatively little research has been conducted on forgiveness in literary studies A Poetics of Forgiveness explores the profound links between creativity and forgiveness and argues that creative production and interpretation can play a vital role in practices of forgiveness Developing a model of poetic forgiveness through the work of Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Kelly Oliver A Poetics of Forgiveness asks how forgiveness is expressed in literature and other art forms and what creative works can bring to secular debates on forgiveness and conflict resolution Jill Scott explores these questions in a wide variety of historical and cultural contexts from Homer s Iliad to 9 11 novels from postwar Germany to post Apartheid South Africa in canonical texts and in diverse media including film photography and testimony
