Tax Court,1969 The Impact of the Federal Estate Tax on State Estate Taxes Steven Maguire,2012-11-22 An estate tax is a tax levied on the assets left behind by a decedent The federal government and many state governments levy estate taxes or some type of tax on the transfer of assets at death In 2012 the federal estate tax allows for a 5 12 million exclusion and a top rate of 35% The federal estate tax is scheduled to revert to the pre 2001 structure on January 1 2013 with a 1 million exclusion and top rate of 55% The Administration s FY2013 budget proposes a federal estate tax with a 3 5 million exemption and top rate of 45% for 2013 Many states also levy estate or inheritance taxes or both that are linked to federal law If the federal estate tax is allowed to revert to pre 2001 law state and federal estate tax revenue will increase significantly by imposing a greater tax burden on estates than would an extension of 2012 law or the President s FY2013 budget proposal The percentage increase in state estate tax revenue would likely be greater than the percentage increase in federal estate taxes under a return to pre 2001 law The principal cause is the return of the federal credit for state death taxes when the tax changes originally enacted by the Economic Growth Tax Relief and Reconciliation Act in 2001 EGTRRA P L 107 16 expire Before EGTRRA all 50 states and the District of Columbia imposed an estate tax

where state estate taxes were linked directly to the federal credit for state death taxes paid death taxes because the credit could also be used for inheritance and succession taxes The dollar for dollar credit meant that state taxes were not an additional burden creating the equivalent of a revenue sharing arrangement between the federal government and the states as most states structured their taxes to match exactly the federal credit EGTRRA gradually replaced the federal credit with a deduction Because of this change to a deduction state estate and inheritance taxes were no longer offset on a dollar for dollar basis and as a result imposed an additional burden on estates and heirs States were then lobbied for relief from this additional estate tax burden As a result by 2012 just 16 states and the District of Columbia imposed an estate tax and 8 states imposed an inheritance tax 2 states levied both As Congress considers the future of the federal estate tax questions concerning the coordination of the tax with the states have arisen This report examines the interaction of federal and state estate taxes under three policy alternatives 1 extend the 2012 law 2 revert to the pre 2001 law and 3 return to the 2009 law as proposed in the Administration s FY2013 budget proposal A fourth option repeal of the federal estate tax has also been proposed If the federal estate tax were repealed repeal of most remaining state estate taxes would likely follow This option however would most likely be considered in the context of broader tax reform and is beyond the scope of this report Which course of action Congress will choose is uncertain and the impact on the states is unclear What is more certain is that coordination with states would likely reduce administrative and compliance costs of the estate tax increase the progressivity of the code generally and possibly increase the economic efficiency of state estate taxes
