Self-Neglect: Learning from Life Shona Britten, Karen Whitby, 2025-02-28 A practice based perspective on working with people who self neglect This book explores the issues and situations which can arise and helps practitioners to adopt a strengths based Learning from Life approach in the translation of MSP principles to practical implementation Self neglect Learning from Life helps frontline practitioners ensure that Making Safeguarding Personal MSP is an everyday reality Using two case scenarios the authors examine issues and practice based situations which arise in the daily application of MSP to casework with adults The scenarios demonstrate lifespan and experience issues in the adoption of MSP as person centred and person led practice with people who self neglect The statutory principles of Empowerment Prevention Proportionality Protection Partnership and Accountability are also translated into practical language and their meaning and implications are unpacked This journey from principles to practical implementation uses a suite of clear and concise practice focused resources which adopt a person centred relationship based approach to all conversations interventions and aspects of practice The resources include a range from SnapShots on a selection of relevant topic areas in work with adults at risk through their safeguarding journey practice based tools for practitioners to use in the quality monitoring of their own casework Taking it Further referencing and suggested sources of more information This invaluable book fills a gap that currently exists in the practical application of the statutory MSP principles as part of a life span approach to work with people who self neglect It minimises the risks associated with siloed approaches to ensure the person is held at the centre of all interventions

Images of Contemporary Iceland Gisli Palsson, E. Paul Durrenberger, 1996-01-01 The Anthropology of Iceland presents the first perspectives on Icelandic anthropology from both Icelandic and foreign anthropologists The thirteen essays in this volume are divided into four themes ideology and action kinship and gender culture class and ethnicity and the Commonwealth period of circa 930 to 1220 which saw the flowering of sagas Insider and outsider viewpoints on such topics as the Icelandic women s movement the transformation of the fishing industry the idea of mystical power in modern Iceland and archaeological research in Iceland merge to form an international comparative discourse Individually and collectively by bringing the insights of anthropology to bear on Iceland the native and foreign authors of this volume carry Iceland into the realm of modern anthropology advancing our understanding of the island s people and the practice of anthropology

Intimate Partner Violence Samuel R. Aymer, 2021-09-09 Intimate Partner Violence Clinical Interventions with Partners and Their Children brings into focus an ecological and clinical frame for addressing the resulting psychological effects of intimate partner violence IPV Aymer presents a perspective that is often omitted from social science textbooks which are geared to policy practice tending to expose students to macro systemic ideas including criminal justice policies and procedures relative to IPV However this book expands clinical practice pedagogy by reinforcing the need for students to go beyond macro issues in order to deliver competent clinically based interventions that help partners and their children work through the consequential effects of partner violence Designed for graduate students in social work psychology gender studies and allied mental health programs it expands the discourse arguing that IPV is a complex psycho social political relational problem that must be understood from a multi theoretical perspective Through case studies theory research and the author s clinical practice wisdom this text will increase understanding of how to work clinically with women affected by IPV increase knowledge of how to work with abusive men heighten knowledge of how IPV affects children and adolescents expand knowledge of social and cultural notions and explore men s role in terms of advocating against gender based violence autonomy isolate them and infiltrate the most intimate corners of their lives Against this backdrop Stark analyzes the cases of three women tried for crimes committed in the context of abuse showing that their reactions are only intelligible when they are reframed as victims of coercive control rather than as battered wives The story of physical and sexual violence against women has been told often But this is the first book to show that most abused women who seek help do so because their rights and liberties have been jeopardized not because they have been injured The coercive control model Stark develops resolves three of the most perplexing challenges posed by abuse why these relationships endure why abused women develop a profile of problems seen among no other group of assault victims and why the legal system has failed to win them justice Elevating coercive control from a second class misdemeanor to a human rights violation Stark explains why law policy and advocacy must shift its focus to emphasize how coercive control jeopardizes women s freedom in everyday life Fiercely argued and eminently readable Stark s work is certain to breathe new life into the domestic violence revolution

Helping an Abused Woman Linda Lillian Baker, Alison J. Cunningham, 2008 Topics addressed give readers insight into how abuse affects women and gives concrete ideas to apply in their work with women You ll find concrete tool box ideas for interventions with women short summaries of the latest research and handouts to supplement your one on one or group work with women

Education and Women Empowerment Ace Buck &, 2019-04-06 Education fills in as the conductor by which women since quite a while ago established in the private circle move into people in general circle and declare themselves on an equivalent premise with men As a springboard to business and monetary freedom advocates say education gives the basic establishment from which encourage strengthening streams It is in this setting the present paper tries to discover the connection between imbalance in education and women strengthening To discover the effect of disparity in education on different parameters a relationship framework has been computed To know the level of women strengthening in different parts of the world the factors like female offer in national parliament level of female education and female work drive support rate has taken Engaging women through education has turned into a best need of worldwide advancement endeavors Erin Murphy Graham draws on over a time of subjective research to look at the encounters of Juanita and eighteen other women who took part in the SAT program Their stories propose the straightforward yet unpretentious ways education can start the strengthening procedure and additionally the part of men and young men in advancing sexual orientation correspondence

New Perspectives on Gender Based Violence: from Research to Intervention, volume II Shulamit Ramon, Luca Rollè, 2024-04-19 This Research Topic is the second volume of the series New Perspectives on Gender based Violence from Research to Intervention The first volume is available here Volume I The European Institute for Gender Equality and the WHO underlined that the Gender based violence GBV and the Violence Against Women VAW involves principally women but also men families and the societies in which they live The GBV and the VAW reinforce the gender inequalities which are steeped in the cultural aspects and gender roles that either support and justify it The United Nation defines VAW as any act of gender based violence that results in or is likely to result in physical sexual or mental harm or suffering to women including threats of such acts coercion or arbitrary deprivation of liberty whether occurring in public or in private life Many organizations practitioners and researchers have emphasized how GBV and VAW have increased exponentially since the outbreak of the Covid 19 Pandemic and how access to protection and advocacy services has become increasingly difficult

Coercive Control Evan Stark,2023 Coercive Control a major update of the seminal first edition contains painful first hand accounts of psychological sexual financial and physical abuse of women Stark identifies the elements of coercive control and the harms they pose to women and their rights New laws policies and approaches are proposed for supporting perpetrators and victims The overall effect is uplifting because the numerous real life stories emphasize survival and endurance
