Volume One: The Ancient World, Orient and Mediterranean, 2000 B.C. to A.D. 1054. The volume traces the development of education in the ancient world from the first scribal cultures of Mesopotamia and Egypt to learning in the early Christian church. A detailed account is given of the achievements of Greece in literacy, learning, philosophy, and training for public life, achievements which were further developed in the Hellenistic Orient and incorporated by the Romans into their own highly organized educational system. This leads to the emergence of a specifically Christian ideal of education, the decline of secular learning in the West, and the preservation of learning both in Byzantium and in Western monasticism. Volume Two: Civilization of Europe, Sixth to Sixteenth Century. Volume Two follows the growth and process of learning in Europe from its foundations in the Carolingian era through its evolution in medieval Europe, especially Italy, France, Germany, and England, to its expansion and refinement in the sixteenth century. Particular attention is paid to the role of medieval institutions of the cathedral and grammar schools and the university. The contribution of notable scholars of the age, such as Abelard, Thomas Aquinas, Erasmus, and Luther. Volume Three: The Modern West, Europe and the New World. The final volume covers the period of educational dissent which became conspicuous in the early seventeenth century and reached crisis proportions in the late twentieth when the dominant ideologies of progress and equality generated at the beginning of the nineteenth century were questioned for the first time on a widespread popular scale. Foundations for Christian Education Eleanor Ann Daniel, John William Wade, 1999 Here is an excellent resource for your Christian Education program. Daniel and Wade discuss the foundations of an effective Christian Education program and tackle organizational and administrative issues involved with such a program. You will also find age-specific information for all ages of learners. If you are a Christian Ed Director or a teacher who wants to better understand the elements of a C.E. program that will make a difference in the lives of the teachers and the students, this is the book for you. Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly, 1913 The Good Christian Ruler in the First Millennium Philip Michael Forness, Alexandra Hasse-Ungeheuer, Hartmut Leppin, 2021-07-19 The late antique and early medieval Mediterranean was characterized by wide-ranging cultural and linguistic diversity. Yet under the influence of Christianity, communities in the Mediterranean world were bound together by common concepts of good rulership which were also shaped by Greco-Roman, Persian, Caucasian, and other traditions This collection of essays examines ideas of good Christian rulership and the debates surrounding them in diverse cultures and linguistic communities It grants special attention to communities on the periphery such as the Caucasus and Nubia and some essays examine non Christian concepts of good rulership to offer a comparative perspective As a whole the studies in this volume reveal not only the entanglement and affinity of communities around the Mediterranean but also areas of conflict among Christians and between Christians and other cultural traditions By gathering various specialized studies on the overarching question of good rulership this volume highlights the possibilities of placing research on classical antiquity and early medieval Europe into conversation with the study of eastern Christianity The Homiletic Review ,1913
