Live from the Underground Katherine Rye Jewell,2023-11-07 Bands like R E M U2 Public Enemy and Nirvana found success as darlings of college radio but the extraordinary influence of these stations and their DJs on musical culture since the 1970s was anything but inevitable As media deregulation and political conflict over obscenity and censorship transformed the business and politics of culture students and community DJs turned to college radio to defy the mainstream and they ended up disrupting popular music and commercial radio in the process In this first history of US college radio Katherine Rye Jewell reveals that these eclectic stations in major cities and college towns across the United States owed their collective cultural power to the politics of higher education as much as they did to upstart bohemian music scenes coast to coast Jewell uncovers how battles to control college radio were about more than music they were an influential if unexpected front in the nation's culture wars These battles created unintended consequences and overlooked contributions to popular culture that students DJs and listeners never anticipated More than an ode to beloved stations this book will resonate with both music fans and observers of the politics of culture

The State of the System Paul W. Bennett,2020-09-23 Over the last fifty years Canada's public schools have been absorbed into a modern education system that functions much like Max Weber's infamous iron cage Crying out for democratic school level reform the system is now a centralized bureaucratic fortress that every year becomes softer on standards for students less accessible to parents further out of touch with communities and surprisingly unresponsive to classroom teachers Exploring the nature of the Canadian education order in all its dimensions The State of the System explains how public schools came to be so bureaucratic confronts the critical issues facing kindergarten to grade 12 public schools in all ten provinces and addresses the need for systemic reform Going beyond a diagnosis of the stresses strains and ills present in the system Paul Bennett proposes a bold plan to re-engineer schools on a more human scale as the first step in
