

Praying with Scripture: A Guided Meditation

Invite the students to quiet themselves, take some deep breaths, and recall that they are in the holy presence of God. You may wish to create a prayerful environment by softening the lighting or playing gentle instrumental music to accompany this meditation.

Leader: Please sit comfortably and quiet your mind as we begin this meditation on the scriptural account of the Annunciation from Luke, chapter 1, verses 26 through 38.

Lector: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke: "In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary."

Commentator: Just imagine. The all-powerful God, Creator of the universe, sent his most important emissary, Gabriel, from God's heavenly court to a small country in a tiny little town that few people had ever heard of to a completely unknown young woman who had no social status, because she was an unmarried virgin. Why would God make such a choice? Then, I think to myself, "I'm not all that important. . . . Could God choose me too?" (pause)

Lector: "And coming to her, [Gabriel] said, 'Hail, favored one! The Lord is with you!' But she was greatly troubled at what was said and pondered what sort of greeting this might be."

Commentator: How does God speak to me? Does he speak through a friend? Does he speak through my own reflections and concerns about the many problems in the world? (pause) Does he speak through a class that gets me thinking about what kind of talents I have to offer? (pause) Does he speak to me through a meditation, such as this? (pause) Mary pondered in her heart what this greeting from the angel might mean. Do I actively listen for God's voice in my life? (pause) Do I allow myself to ponder the deep questions that are welling up within me? (pause)

Lector: "Then the angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.'"

Commentator: What fears cause me to hesitate? Am I afraid to look at myself or others with honesty and humility? Do I feel unworthy to be "favored" by God? How open am I to the world around me? Is it possible for me to be open to God in the way Mary was open?

Lector: "Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

Commentator: When I look at the stars of the sky, I am filled with wonder and awe. I ponder my own place in this vast and complex universe. If I continue to open my heart to God, who knows what wonders I may one day become a part of. Perhaps I will help discover ways to solve some of humanity's biggest problems, or perhaps I will support people in need. God invited Mary to give birth to Jesus, the Savior, because she opened her heart to the wonder of God's creation. Lord, help me to be open. Fill me with wonder and awe. (pause)
