

Comprehension and Discussion Activities for the Movie

Hotel Rwanda

This module has been designed to accompany the film Hotel Rwanda (2004).

Hotel Rwanda is based on real characters and events that took place in Rwanda in 1994.

Tension between Hutu and Tutsi ethnic groups reached a crisis point in that year, when Rwandan radio announced that May 5 was to be the 'cleanup day'. On that day the capital, Kigali, must be cleansed of Tutsis. Nearly one million people were killed by Hutu militia shortly after this announcement. Hotel Rwanda is a film about this event.

Hotel Rwanda is also about Paul Rusesabagina, who made the hotel he managed into a refugee camp. This single daring act allowed thousands to survive.

The module consists of teacher's notes and two handouts that you can copy and give to your students. If you don't have access to a copier, you can write these on the board.

You might like to do many of these activities in students' first language. It is important that they understand the ideas behind the story, and this is easier in their own language.

Classic Questions and Contemporary Film Dean A. Kowalski, 2015-08-17 Featuring significant revisions and updates
Classic Questions and Contemporary Film An Introduction to Philosophy 2nd Edition uses popular movies as a highly accessible framework for introducing key philosophical concepts Explores 28 films with 18 new to this edition including Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Hotel Rwanda V for Vendetta and Memento Discusses numerous philosophical issues not covered in the first edition including a new chapter covering issues of personal identity the meaningfulness of life and death and existentialism Offers a rich pedagogical framework comprised of key classic readings chapter learning outcomes jargon free argument analysis critical thinking and trivia questions a glossary of terms and textboxes with notes on the movies discussed Revised to be even more accessible to beginning philosophers Are We Postmodern Yet? Reinhold Kramer, 2019-11-08 In this book Reinhold Kramer explores a variety of important social changes including the resistance to objective measures of truth the rise of How I Feel ethics the ascendancy of individualism the immersion in cyber simulations the push toward globalization and multilateralism and the decline of political and religious faiths He argues that the displacement since the 1990s of grand narratives by ego based narratives and small narratives has proven inadequate and that selective adherence pluralist adaptation and humanism are more worthy replacements Relying on evolutionary psychology as much as on Charles Taylor Kramer argues that no single answer is possible to the book title's question but that the term postmodernity referring to the era not to postmodernism still usefully describes major currents within the contemporary world Representing Genocide Rebecca Jinks, 2016-06-02 This book explores the diverse ways in which Holocaust representations have influenced and structured how other genocides are understood and represented in the West Rebecca Jinks focuses in particular on the canonical 20th century cases of genocide Armenia Cambodia Bosnia and Rwanda Using literature film photography and memorialisation she demonstrates that we can only understand the Holocaust's status as a benchmark for other genocides if we look at the deeper structural resonances which subtly shape many representations of genocide Representing Genocide pursues five thematic areas in turn how genocides are recognised as such by western publics the representation of the origins and perpetrators of genocide how western witnesses represent genocide representations of the aftermath of genocide and western responses to genocide Throughout the book distinguishes between mainstream and other more nuanced and engaged representations of genocide It shows how these mainstream representations the majority largely replicate the representational framework of the Holocaust including the way in which mainstream Holocaust representations resist recognising the rationality instrumentality and normality of genocide preferring instead to present it as an aberrant exceptional event in human society By contrast the more engaged representations often but not always originating from those who experienced genocide tend to revolve around precisely genocide's ordinariness and the structures and situations common to human society which contribute to and become involved in the violence

Organizational Behaviour and Work Fiona M. Wilson, 2013-12 This edition provides a critical approach to the study of work and organizational behaviour questioning what organizational behaviour is and how it has been researched and discussed

Moral Theory at the Movies Dean Kowalski, 2011-12-08 Moral Theory at the Movies provides students with a wonderfully approachable introduction to ethics The book incorporates film summaries and study questions to draw students into ethical theory and then pairs them with classical philosophical texts The students see how moral theories dilemmas and questions are represented in the given films and learn to apply these theories to the world they live in There are 36 films and a dozen readings including Thank you for Smoking Plato's Gorgias John Stuart Mill's Utilitarianism Hotel Rwanda Plato's Republic and Horton Hears a Who Topics cover a wide variety of ethical theories including ethical subjectivism moral relativism ethical theory and virtue ethics Moral Theory at the Movies will appeal to students and help them think about how philosophy is relevant today

A Game as Old as Empire (Volume 1 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 18pt Edition), The New York Sun Crosswords #19 Peter Gordon, 2009-02 The August 8 2005 issue of the Weekly Standard called The New York Sun crosswords the best in America beating out The New York Times in a head to head competition What makes them the greatest They're carefully edited so those obscure words that nobody actually uses are out and solving pleasure is in thanks to tricky clues and witty puns Most of the puzzles have clever and original themes that add to the fun Plus solvers will enjoy the wide range of difficulty indicated by the number of stars on top

Human Rights in Europe during the Cold War Rasmus Mariager, Karl Molin, Kjersti Brathagen, 2014-06-05 This book provides an overview of the establishment dispersion and effects of human rights in Europe during the Cold War The struggle for human rights did not begin at the end of the Second World War For centuries political associations religious societies and individuals had been fighting for political freedom religious tolerance freedom of expression freedom of thought and the right to participate in politics However the world was awakened by the atrocities of the Second World War and the idea that every person should have certain perpetual and inalienable rights was set out in The Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR from 1948 which contained an enumeration of international human rights standards Adopting an interpretative framework which pulls together universal ideas values and principles of human rights

Human Rights in Europe during the Cold War demonstrates how conflicting interests collided when the exact meaning of human rights was established. It also discusses various approaches to the idea of imposing respect for human rights in countries where they were systematically violated and assesses the outcome of international accords on human rights in particular the 1975 Helsinki Final Act. In conclusion, this volume proposes that human rights functioned as moral support to the opposition in repressive regimes and that this was subsequently used as a tool to further system changes. Based on new archival research, this book will be of much interest to students of Cold War studies, human rights, European history, international law, and IR in general.

The Big Book of Easy Daily Crosswords Peter Gordon, 2009-10. This collection is chock full of simple puzzles with terrific themes and lots of wordplay. Perfect for beginners.
