

The background of the cover is a dynamic, high-contrast image of a car battery. A bright, intense yellow and white spark is erupting from the top terminal of the battery, creating a large, starburst-like effect. The sparks are depicted as numerous fine, radiating lines of light. The battery itself is dark, with some blue and red accents visible on its casing. The overall scene is set against a dark, textured background, possibly representing a car's engine compartment or a workshop environment.
