Theoretical Framework for Language Education and Teaching Paolo E. Balboni, 2018-07-26 Educational linguistics is transcultural with research in the field adopting an international scope Educational systems on the contrary are culture bound As a consequence actual teaching differs across countries and sometimes even among provinces local educational authorities and schools However a globalized world needs to share the various meanings of knowing a language and teaching a language as language is the main factor of both cultural identity and national and international interaction The framework offered here is built on eight hypotheses logical models that provide the potential common core of a non culture bound theory of language education and of language teaching The book thus suggests a common terminology some common principles and a basic paradigm to be shared in both theoretical and practical research in edu linguistics consequently going beyond the borders implied by such titles as European framework American standards and Chinese guidelines Teaching and Researching: Autonomy in Language Learning Phil Benson, 2013-11-04 Autonomy has become a keyword of language policy in education systems around the world as the importance of independent learning and new technologies has grown Now in a fully revised and updated second edition Teaching and Researching Autonomy provides an accessible and comprehensive critical account of the theory and practice of autonomy Examining the history of the concept it addresses important questions of how we can identify autonomy in language learning behaviours and how we can evaluate the wide variety of educational practices that have been designed to foster autonomy in learning Topics new to this edition include Autonomy and new technologies Teacher autonomy The sociocultural implications of autonomy With over three hundred new references and five new case studies of research on autonomy providing practical advice on research methods and topics in the field Teaching and Researching Autonomy will be an essential introduction for teachers and students to a subject at the cutting edge of language teaching and research

Spirituality and English Language Teaching Mary Shepard Wong,Ahmar Mahboob,2018-08-09 This collection of 16 reflective accounts and data driven studies explores the interrelationship of religious identity and English Language Teaching ELT The chapters broaden a topic which has traditionally focused on Christianity by including Buddhist Hindu Muslim and non religious perspectives They address the ways in which faith and ELT intersect in the realms of teacher identity pedagogy and the context and content of ELT and explore a diverse range of geographical contexts making use of a number of different research methodologies The book will be of particular interest to researchers in TESOL and EFL as well as teachers and teacher trainers

Drama-based foreign language learning Helga Tschurtschenthaler,2013 What does another language do to the individual who learns and uses it How is the individual s idea of self affected by the other language This case study deals with these two overarching questions within the context of learning English as a foreign language through drama at a German upper secondary school in South Tyrol It investigates how the students see themselves in their roles how they perceive themselves as users of the foreign language and how they experience themselves in role in another language The results show how powerful drama based activities can be and what educational impact they have

Methods and Methodologies for Language Teaching Andy Curtis,2017-05-31 An essential guide for pre service and in service English language teachers There are countless theories and approaches to language teaching and with so many different methodologies available it can be difficult for teachers to weigh up the pros and cons of each or even to know where to start Written by an experienced teacher and researcher Methods and Methodologies for Language Teaching takes a fresh look at ten approaches to classroom language teaching and learning Each chapter includes suggested activities and further reading presenting the origins and key features of each methodology before discussing its relation to assessment and learning outcomes This is a clear concise and context driven introduction to teaching methods which reasserts the significance of methodology as a central pillar of language learning

Comparative Patriarchy and American Institutions Francis Feeley,2010-02-19 As Claude L vi Strauss wrote in his book La pens e sauvage Paris 1960 biographical and anecdotal history is low powered history which is not intelligible in itself and only becomes so when it is transferred en bloc to a form of history of a higher power than itself The historian's relative choice is always confined to the choice between history which teaches more and explains less and history which explains more and teaches less This book oscillates between analysis which tries to explain what man is and anecdote which tries to teach what he is capable of becoming What better approach to understanding patriarchy beyond learning the formal dictionary definitions of this term than by examining the richly diverse descriptions of gender relationships found in the following chapters It is the hope of these authors that the recognition of national differences and gender differences will provide new vantage points from which we may gain wider perspectives on our own prejudices and thereby find fulfillment of our aspirations to become more fully human

Debating in Teaching and Learning English Ben Wilson, 2024-04-18 This book offers the first full length treatment of the topic of debating as a method of developing English Foreign Language EFL speaking inviting scholars and practitioners to reflect on the demands of the current age for moving forward educational practice While debating is a well known method of dialogic speaking and is widely practiced the extent to which it is integrated in adult TEFL has not been established and an understanding of its affordances for developing foreign language speaking is also limited This book fills the gap in the field of TESOL and applied linguistics on the affordances of debating as a form of dialogic speaking that can promote a holistic understanding and improvement of experience of education and indeed academic outcomes The two main themes that situate the work are those of dialogic speaking and affect at times referred to as humanistic positive psychology and social and emotional learning The book details the experiences of an adult EFL debate group in a private language school in the North of Italy It reports how the participants experience the pedagogy so as to offer insights into it as a form of teaching speaking in adult EFL as well as providing a practical framework with lesson plans and curriculum The affordances of debating emerge as being social cognitive educational and communicative and are discussed alongside the work of language teaching scholars Curran and Freire and more broadly within a Social Constructivist approach to education As such debating is discussed as being a holistic and dialogic form of pedagogy Particular attention to experience often affective is also found to be fundamental in planning and assessing educational outcomes for both teachers and learners
