

MALCOLM'S JOURNAL ENTRY #7

I can scarcely believe that soon I'll be meeting the last surviving members of the Loric race, the Garde. And that Sam already has—that he considers them his friends, and they think the same of him. Helping these alien children has been my life's work; it's still strange to think of one befriending my son in high school.

High school. They may have grown but they've all hardly more than children. Children with amazing powers, yes, but still children. And the fate of their entire world—and ours—rests on their shoulders.

Uplifting thought, isn't it? Well. The Greeters were always meant to assist the Loric here on Earth. So that's what I'll continue to do. Our plans have been derailed, but that doesn't mean we can't keep fighting. We will beat the terrible odds stacked against us. Together we will win this war.

At least, that's what I hope.
