Journey with JC Tosca Lenci,2012      From Cairo to Baghdad James Canton,2014-08-25 Until the 1880s British travellers to Arabia were for the most part wealthy dilettantes who could fund their travels from private means With the advent of an Imperial presence in the region as the British seized power in Egypt the very nature of travel to the Middle East changed Suddenly ordinary men and women found themselves visiting the region as British influence increased Missionaries soldiers and spies as well as tourists and explorers started to visit the area creating an ever bigger supply of writers and market for their books In a similar fashion as the Empire receded in the wake of World War II so did the whole tradition of Middle East travel writing In this elegantly crafted book James Canton examines over one hundred primary sources from forgotten gems to the classics of T E Lawrence Thesiger and Philby He analyses the relationship between Empire and author showing how the one influenced the other leading to a vast array of texts that might never have been produced had it not been for the ambitions of Imperial Britain This work makes for essential reading for all of those interested in the literature of Empire travel writing and the Middle East      Journey's County Legend ZaPia Swift,2020-08-03 Journey s County Legend

Miller,2012-08-02 Although considered a relatively new genre the mockumentary has existed nearly as long as filmmaking itself and has become one of the most common forms of film and television comedy today In order to better understand the larger cultural truths artfully woven into their deception these works demonstrate just how tenuous and problematic our collective understandings of our social worlds can be In Too Bold for the Box Office The Mockumentary from Big Screen to Small Cynthia J Miller has assembled essays by scholars and filmmakers who examine this unique cinematic form Individually each of these essays looks at a given instance of mockumentary parody and subversion examining the ways in which each calls into question our assumptions pleasures beliefs and even our senses Writing about national film television and new media traditions as diverse as their backgrounds this volume s contributors explore and theorize the workings of mockumentaries as well as the strategies and motivations of the writers and filmmakers who brought them into being Reflections by filmmakers Kevin Brownlow It Happened Here Christopher Hansen The Proper Care and Feeding of An American Messiah and Spencer Schaffner The Urban Literacy Manifesto add valued perspective and significantly deepen the discussions found in the volume s other contributions This collection of essays on films television programming and new media illustrates common threads running across cultures and eras and attempts to answer sweeping existential questions about the nature of social life and the human condition
