The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya M. Mulinge, N. Arasa, 2017-05-05

This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya

Everyday Youth Literacies Kathy Sanford, Theresa Rogers, Maureen Kendrick, 2014-07-24 Testifying to the maturity of the youth literacy education field this collection of papers displays the increasing sophistication of research on the subject and at the same time offers pointers to its potential for development in the next decade The contributors track the rapid proliferation of youth literacies in today's digital age from video games to social media and film production Drawing on detailed research and an intimate knowledge of youth communities in nations as diverse as Canada and Uganda they provide notable examples of digital literacies in situ and challenge conventional wisdom about literacy education The chapters do more however than merely offer reportage of a crisis in literacy education The authors embrace the core challenge faced by educators everywhere how to incorporate and utilize new modes of literacy in education and how to realize the potential benefits of heterogeneous modern media in youth literacy education especially in marginalized remote and disadvantaged communities This volume expands our view of digital communications technologies and digital literacies to include complex understandings of how media such as translated videos can serve as learning tools for youths whose access to literacy education is limited In particular a number of contributing scholars provide important new information about the praxis of teachers and the literacies adopted by young people in Africa a continent largely neglected by literacy researchers This book s global perspective and its ground level viewpoint of youth literacy practices in a variety of locations problematizes normative assumptions about researching literacy as well as about literacy itself

Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women s interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa
