Celime and by what strange spell will Armand de Montriveau's incandescent passion in turn consume it. Like any true masterpiece, this black novel originally entitled Don't touch the axe is in part a sublimated autobiography; in other words, the opposite of a key novel. Only I know what's horrible about The Duchess of Langeais. Balzac told one of his relatives. This is why the work has kept its mystery and seductive power for more than a century and a half.
