L'Empire ottoman du XVIe au XVIIIe siècle Robert Mantran, 2024-12-11 United by a common interest in the institutions the social life and the commercial activities of the Ottoman empire in its heyday these studies fall into three sections The first concentrates upon Istanbul the heart of the empire the second covers the dealings between the Ottomans and foreign traders amongst whom the Venetians held a prime position Robert Mantran then turns to the Arabic provinces of the empire examining their relations with the central government In particular he looks at Northern Africa the history of which in the Ottoman period remains too little studied and yet for which as for other aspects of Ottoman history there still exists a wealth of unexplored documentary information , The Cult of the Modern Gavin Murray-Miller, 2017 The Cult of the Modern focuses on nineteenth century France and Algeria and examines the role that ideas of modernity and modernization played in both national and colonial programs during the years of the Second Empire and the early Third Republic Gavin Murray Miller rethinks the subject by examining the idiomatic use of modernity in French cultural and political discourse The Cult of the Modern argues that the modern French republic is a product of nineteenth century colonialism rather than a creation of the Enlightenment or the French Revolution This analysis contests the predominant Parisian and metropolitan contexts that have traditionally framed French modernity studies noting the important role that colonial Algeria and the administration of Muslim subjects played in shaping understandings of modern identity and governance among nineteenth century politicians and intellectuals In synthesizing the narratives of continental France and colonial North Africa Murray Miller proposes a new framework for nineteenth century French political and cultural history bringing into sharp relief the diverse ways in which the French nation was imagined and represented throughout the country's turbulent postrevolutionary history as well as the implications for prevailing understandings of France today The Oxford Handbook of Greek and Roman Coinage William E. Metcalf, 2012 A broadly illustrated overview of the contemporary state of Greco Roman numismatic scholarship

THE TEMPLE OF HATSHEPSUT - THE SOLAR COMPLEX Janusz Karkowski, 2003-01-01 The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 2, The Western Islamic World, Eleventh to Eighteenth Centuries Maribel Fierro, 2010-11-04 Volume 2 of The New Cambridge History of Islam is devoted to the history of the Western Islamic lands from the political fragmentation of the eleventh century to the beginnings of European colonialism towards the end of the eighteenth century The volume embraces a vast area from al Andalus and North Africa to Arabia and the lands of the Ottomans In the first four sections scholars all leaders in their particular fields chart the rise and fall and explain the political and religious developments of the various independent ruling dynasties across the region including famously the Almohads the Fatimids and Mamluks and of course the Ottomans The final section of the volume explores the commonalities and continuities that united these diverse and geographically disparate communities through in depth analyses of state formation conversion taxation scholarship and the military

Universal Salvation in Late Antiquity Archbishop Michael Bland Simmons, 2015-05-26 This study offers an in depth examination of Porphyrian soteriology or the concept of the salvation of the soul in the thought of Porphyry of Tyre whose significance for late antique thought is immense Porphyry s concept of salvation is important for an understanding of those cataclysmic forces not always theological that helped convert the Roman Empire from paganism to Christianity Porphyry a disciple of Plotinus was the last and greatest anti Christian writer to vehemently attack the Church before the Constantinian revolution His contribution to the pagan Christian debate on universalism can thus shed light on the failure of paganism and the triumph of Christianity in late antiquity In a broader historical and cultural context this study will address some of the issues central to the debate on universalism in which Porphyry was passionately involved and which was becoming increasingly significant during the unprecedented series of economic cultural political and military crises of the third century As the author will argue Porphyry may have failed to find one way of salvation for all humanity he nonetheless arrived a hierarchical soteriology something natural for a Neoplatonist which resulted in an integrative religious and philosophical system His system is examined in the context of other developing ideologies of universalism during a period of unprecedented imperial crises which were used by the emperors as an agent of political and religious unification Christianity finally triumphed over its competitors owing to its being perceived to be the only universal salvation cult that was capable of bringing about this unification In short it won due to its unique universalist soteriology By examining a rival to Christianity s concept of universal salvation this book will be valuable to students and scholars of ancient philosophy patristics church history and late antiquity
