La Luna Di Carta:

Sicilian Elements in Andrea Camilleri's Narrative Language Cinzia Russi, 2020-10-14 Sicilian Elements in Andrea Camilleri's Narrative Language examines Camilleri's unique linguistic repertoire and techniques over his career as a novelist. It focuses on the intensification of Sicilian linguistic features in Camilleri's narrative works in particular features pertaining to the domains of sounds and grammar since these have been marginalized in linguistic centered research on the evolution of Camilleri's narrative language and remain overall understudied. Through a systematic comparative analysis of the distribution patterns of selected Sicilian features in a selection of Camilleri's historical novels and novels of the Montalbano series the author identifies the individual features that have become most widespread and the lexical items that are targeted with highest frequency and consistency. The results of the analysis show that in the earlier novels Sicilian features are rather sparse and can be attributed to linguistic situational functionality that is they function as indices of salient distinctive aspects of topics settings events situations and characters. Conversely in the latest novels Sicilian elements pervade the entire novels and the texts are written almost entirely in Camilleri's own Sicilian vigatese so that Sicilian is stripped of any linguistic situational functionality.

The Importance of Place in Contemporary Italian Crime Fiction Barbara Pezzotti, 2012-09-20 An analysis of the relationship between detective fiction and its setting this book is the most wide ranging examination of the way in which Italian detective fiction in the last 20 years has become a means to articulate the changes in the social landscape of the country.

Funny Thing About Murder David Geherin, 2017-10-11 Focusing on crime fiction and films that artfully combine comedy and misdeed this book explores the reasons writers and filmmakers inject humor into their work and identifies the various comic techniques they use. The author covers both American and European books from the 1930s to the present by such authors as Rex Stout Raymond Chandler Robert B Parker Elmore Leonard Donald E Westlake Sue Grafton Carl Hiaasen and Janet Evanovich along with films from The Thin Man to the BBC's Sherlock series.

New Approaches to Contrastive Linguistics Renata Enghels, Bart Defrancq, Marlies Jansegers, 2020-07-20 The practice of comparing languages has a long tradition characterized by a cyclic pattern of interest. Its meeting with corpus linguistics in the 1990s has led to a new sub discipline of corpus based contrastive studies. The present volume tackles two main challenges that had not yet been fully addressed in the literature namely an empirical assessment of the nature of the data commonly used in cross linguistic studies e.g. translation data versus comparable data and the development of advanced methods and statistical techniques.

suitably adapted to contrastive research settings The papers collected in this volume endeavour to find out what new types of data are most useful for what kind of contrastive questions and which advanced statistical techniques are most suited to deal with the multidimensionality of contrastive research questions Answers to these questions are provided through the contrastive analysis of various language pairs or groups and a wide variety of phenomena situated at almost all linguistic levels In sum this book provides an update on new methodological and theoretical insights in empirical contrastive linguistics and will stimulate further research within this field

Pezzotti, 2014-01-23 This book comprehensively covers the history of Italian crime fiction from its origins to the present Using the concept of moral rebellion the author examines the ways in which Italian crime fiction has articulated the country's social and political changes The book concentrates on such writers as Augusto de Angelis 1888-1944 Giorgio Scerbanenco 1911-1969 Leonardo Sciascia 1921-1989 Andrea Camilleri b 1925 Lorian Macchiavelli b 1934 Massimo Carlotto b 1956 and Marcello Fois b 1960 Through the analysis of writers belonging to differing crucial periods of Italy's history this work reveals the many ways in which authors exploit the genre to reflect social transformation and dysfunction

Methods of Murder

Elena M. Past, 2012-03-13 The first extended analysis of the relationship between Italian criminology and crime fiction in English Methods of Murder examines works by major authors both popular such as Gianrico Carofiglio and canonical such as Carlo Emilio Gadda Many scholars have argued that detective fiction did not exist in Italy until 1929 and that the genre which was considered largely Anglo-Saxon was irrelevant on the Italian peninsula By contrast Past traces the roots of the twentieth century literature and cinema of crime to two much earlier diverging interpretations of the criminal the bodiless figure of Cesare Beccaria's Enlightenment era On Crimes and Punishments and the biological offender of Cesare Lombroso's positivist Criminal Man Through her examinations of these texts Past demonstrates the links between literary philosophical and scientific constructions of the criminal and provides the basis for an important reconceptualization of Italian crime fiction by exploring ten of the best new crime and mystery authors from Sweden Stieg Larsson and Henning Mankell Norway Karin Fossum and Jo Nesbo Iceland Arnaldur Indridason Italy Andrea Camilleri France Fred Vargas Scotland Denise Mina and Philip Kerr and Ireland Ken Bruen who are reshaping the landscape of the modern crime novel Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here [The Fastest Pen of the West \[Part Two\]](#) Albino Galuppini, 2018-12-21 This is a biography of Bill Kaysing 1922 2005 author of the important book We never went to the Moon It tells the whole story of a writer with a very unusual alternative lifestyle After working for Rocketdyne Kaysing became a whistleblower regarding the Apollo Space Programme He completely changed his lifestyle to become a nonconformist and began to live a life which many free thinkers might envy He lived outside the constraints of the society that most of the rest of us live in While living in California he became quite infamous all over the world as the father of the controversial theory of the Moon landing hoax His extraordinary story is one that gives a fascinating glimpse into certain parts of American society and one that will shake the conscience of any reader who is not aware of the machinations of US corporations and government

A History of Folding in Mathematics Michael Friedman, 2018-05-25 While it is well known that the Delian problems are impossible to solve with a straightedge and compass for example it is impossible to construct a segment whose length is cube root of 2 with these instruments the discovery of the Italian mathematician Margherita Beloch Piazzolla in 1934 that one can in fact construct a segment of length cube root of 2 with a single paper fold was completely ignored till the end of the 1980s This comes as no surprise since with few exceptions paper folding was seldom considered as a mathematical practice let alone as a mathematical procedure of inference or proof that could prompt novel mathematical discoveries A few questions immediately arise Why did paper folding become a non instrument What caused the marginalisation of this technique And how was the mathematical knowledge which was nevertheless transmitted and prompted by paper folding later treated and conceptualised Aiming to answer these questions this volume provides for the first time an extensive historical study on the history of folding in mathematics spanning from the 16th century to the 20th century and offers a general study on the ways mathematical knowledge is marginalised disappears is ignored or becomes obsolete In doing so it makes a valuable contribution to the field of history and philosophy of science particularly the history and philosophy of mathematics and is highly recommended for anyone interested in these topics

The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva's idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality
