practice and art of the essay This unique work includes a selection of fifty distinctive pieces by American Canadian English European and South American essayists from Montaigne to the present many of which have not previously been anthologized or translated as well as a detailed bibliographical and thematic guide to hundreds of additional works about the essay From a buoyant introduction that provides a sweeping historical and analytic overview of essayists thinking about their genre a collective poetics of the essay to the detailed headnotes offering pointed information about both the essayists themselves and the anthologized selections to the richly detailed bibliographic sections Essayists on the Essay is essential to anyone who cares about the form This collection provides teachers scholars essayists and readers with the materials they need to take a fresh look at this important but often overlooked form that has for too long been relegated to the role of service genre used primarily to write about other more literary genres or to teach young people how to write Here in a single celebratory volume are four centuries of commentary and theory reminding us of the essay s storied history its international appeal and its relationship not just with poetry and fiction but also with radio film video and new media The Authority to Imagine Maria Piantanida, 2006 Textbook The Made-Up Self Carl H. Klaus, 2010-04-15 The human presence that animates the personal essay is surely one of the most beguiling of literary phenomena for it comes across in so familiar a voice that it s easy to believe we are listening to the author rather than a textual stand in But the person in a personal essay is always a written construct a fabricated character its confessions and reminiscences as rehearsed as those of any novelist In this first book length study of the personal essay Carl Klaus unpacks this made up self and the manifold ways in which a wide range of essayists and essays have brought it to life By reconceiving the most fundamental aspect of the personal essay the I of the essayist Klaus demonstrates that this seemingly uncontrived form of writing is inherently problematic not willfully devious but bordering upon the world of fiction He develops this key idea by explaining how structure style and voice determine the nature of a persona and our perception of it in the works of such essayists as Michel de Montaigne Charles Lamb E B White and Virginia Woolf Realizing that this persona is shaped by the force of culture and the impress of personal experience he explores the effects of both upon the point of view content and voice of such essayists as George Orwell Nancy Mairs Richard Rodriguez and Alice Walker Throughout in full command of the history of the essay he calls up numerous passages in which essayists themselves acknowledge the element of impersonation in their work drawing upon the perspectives of Joan Didion Edward Hoagland Joyce Carol Oates Leslie Marmon Silko Scott Russell Sanders Annie Dillard Vivian Gornick Loren Eiseley James Baldwin and a host of other literary guides Finally adding yet another layer to the made up self Klaus succumbs to his addiction to the personal essay by placing some of the different selves that various essayists have called forth in him within the essays that he has crafted so carefully for this book Making his way from one essay to the next with a persona variously learned whimsical and poignant he enacts the palimpsest of ways in which the made up self comes to life in the work of a single essayist Thus over the course of this highly original beautifully structured study the personal essay is revealed to be more complex than many readers have supposed With its lively analyses and illuminating examples The Made Up Self will speak to anyone who wishes to understand or to write personal essays
