Meredith's already unique body of work Modern Love is now best known for the emotionally intense sonnet cycle which Meredith's own contemporaries dismissed as scandalously confessional and indiscreet. While individual sonnets from the work have been anthologized, the complete cycle is rarely included and the original edition has not been reprinted since its first appearance in 1862. This edition restores the original publication and supplements it with a range of accompanying materials that will reintroduce Meredith's astonishing collection of poetry to a new generation of readers. Inseparable Love Paul Turner, 2017-02-02 This book provides a paragraph by paragraph commentary on the Catholic Church's Order of Celebrating Matrimony. Readers will learn about the history and theology of the elements of the rite and of the pertinent texts in the Roman Missal. Paul Turner provides translations of reports of the study group that revised the ceremony after the Second Vatican Council. The book also covers the Spanish translations used in the United States, Mexico, and Colombia and variations permitted in Australia and in England and Wales as well as in French speaking Canada. This in-depth commentary serves as an invaluable resource for practitioners and students of Catholic weddings.

Teaching English as a Foreign Language, 1936-1961: Teaching English in difficult circumstances Richard C. Smith, 2005 This set includes the works of neglected theorists such as Horace Wyatt and Michael West. This set complements English as a Foreign Language Teaching 1912-1936: Pioneers of ELT.

Beyond the Battle Line Luke I. C. Kim, 2012-04-13 The autobiographical work by Dr. Luke Kim describes his life throughout the turbulent 20th and into the 21st century in Korea, Japan, and the United States. The book is modest in size but rich in content. It can be divided into three periods: early life in Northernmost Korea until age 15; the second period in Seoul where he experienced the very destructive Korean War during which he lost his mother who was kidnapped by North Korean security agents and we never heard from her nor any news about her ever since 1950; then his coming to America at age 26 in 1956.

Male-to-Female Crossdressing in Early Modern English Literature Simone Chess, 2016-04-14 This volume examines and theorizes the oft ignored phenomenon of male to female MTF crossdressing in early modern drama prose and poetry inviting MTF crossdressing episodes to take a fuller place alongside instances of female to male crossdressing and boy actors crossdressing which have long held the spotlight in early modern gender studies The author argues that MTF crossdressing episodes are especially rich sources for socially oriented readings of queer gender that crossdressers genders are constructed and represented in relation to romantic partners communities and broader social structures like marriage economy and sexuality Further she argues that these relational representations show that the crossdresser and his/her allies often benefit financially socially and erotically from his/her queer gender presentation a corrective to the dominant idea that queer gender has always been associated with shame containment and correction By attending to these relational and beneficial representations of MTF crossdressers in early modern literature the volume helps to make a larger space for queer gender queer male bodied and queer feminine representations in our conversations about early modern gender and sexuality

The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric Camilla Caporicci, 2025-01-29 Traditionally attributed to King Solomon and called by Rabbi Akiva the Holy of Holies among sacred Scriptures Mishnah Yadayim 3:5 the Song of Songs is one of the most fascinating and controversial biblical books and played an essential role in the shaping of European spirituality and culture Combining in a unique way a sensual and deeply lyrical celebration of love with a well established tradition of Christian allegorical interpretation this text crucial to both the Middle Ages and the early modern period held a particular appeal for poets devoted not only to religious verse but also to love poetry The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric is the first systematic and wide ranging investigation of the multifaceted use of the Song of Songs in Renaissance love lyric poetry with specific attention to Italian French and especially English poetic production At the same time this investigation is embedded into a narrative that comprising two initial chapters devoted to medieval poetry and to Francesco Petrarca represents an unprecedented attempt to trace the role of the Song of Songs in the rise and development of the European love lyric following its path or rather one of its paths from the medieval origins of this tradition to the end of the sixteenth century The picture of the general impact of the Song of Songs in the development of the European love lyric is combined with in depth analysis of key works by specific authors including Dante Alighieri Francesco Petrarca Torquato Tasso Marguerite de Navarre Anne de Marquets Clément Marot

Richard Barnfield Edmund Spenser William Shakespeare John Donne Elizabeth Melville and Aemilia Lanyer promoting a contextualization of their significance within a new interpretative framework While the comparative standpoint characterizing this study fosters a deeper comprehension of the evolution of the European love lyric its multidisciplinary approach which considers the Song of Songs as the centre of a web of dynamics pertaining to the fields of literature philosophy theology and religious and cultural history contributes to the understanding of the thought and spirit of ages crucial to the shaping of European culture
