The True Exotic Colors of Indonesia (English Edition) Martha Tilaar Puspita Martha, 2013-05-30 Indonesia is a country endowed with a wealth of colorful cultures and flora and fauna. The land provides endless source of inspiration for anyone to create work and etch traces of significance on the mother land. Martha Tilaar is one of these people. Through her journey in cosmetics for the past 42 years, she has made her contribution by pioneering in the opening of a chapter in the history of the creation of Indonesian makeup color trend. Through this book, Martha shares with her fellow Indonesians her stories and journey in creating and processing Indonesian color trend. She describes here how the archipelago has inspired her in creating color trend for Indonesian women. She explicitly looks back to the 80s when Indonesian cosmetics were not yet well received by the Indonesians. This condition bothered her, and in 1987, she resolutely produced the very first Sariayu color trend named Twilight at Sriwedari. This initial collection received recognition and acknowledgement from various beauty observers and experts as the pioneer in Indonesian color trend that has to date been consistently created annually based on the Indonesian culture and nature. The history of the journey and the inspirations behind the birth of the color trend are told by Martha Tilaar in such a way that makes each page of the book captivating and full of meaning. The book is complemented by various styles and inspirations of Indonesian artists in facial makeup and hairstyle who provide the illustrations for the history of exotic Indonesian color trend.

Husserl's Phenomenology Kevin Hermberg,2006-12-08 Kevin Hermberg's book fills an important gap in previous Husserl scholarship by focusing on intersubjectivity and empathy i.e the experience of others as other subjects and by addressing the related issues of validity the degrees of evidence with which something can be experienced and the different senses of objective in Husserl's texts Despite accusations by commentators that Husserl's is a solipsistic philosophy and that the epistemologies in Husserl's late and early works are contradictory Hermberg shows that empathy and thus other subjects are related to one's knowledge on the view offered in each of Husserl's Introductions to Phenomenology Empathy is significantly related to knowledge in at least two ways and Husserl's epistemology might consequently be called a social epistemology a empathy helps to give evidence for validity and thus to solidify one's knowledge and b it helps to broaden one's knowledge by giving access to what others have known These roles of empathy are not at odds with one another rather both are at play in each of the Introductions if even only implicitly and given his position in the earlier work Husserl needed to expand the role of empathy as he did Such a reliance on empathy however calls into question whether Husserl's is a transcendental philosophy in the sense Husserl claimed Pain, Penance, and Protest Sara M.
