Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993.

Language Policy and Language Education in Emerging Nations Robert de Beaugrande, Meta Grosman, Barbara Seidhofer, 1998. It has long been an assumption in the field of English as a foreign language that those who speak the language as natives pronounce the way it should be taught. Most influential figures in the field have been outsiders and the subject has accordingly not been really defined as the teaching of English as a foreign language but as the teaching of English to foreigners, quite a different thing. This book discusses the designing of programs for learning which will take the different kinds of foreignness into account. Catalogue of Periodicals and Continuations, 1989.

Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Science & technology Albert John Walford, Anthony P. Harvey, H. Drubba, 1980. Research Clifford Hawkins, Marco Sorgi, 2013-03-09. Training for research is only available in a few places in the world so that usually the researcher has to learn to master every step by himself. This entails planning the research, finding out how to obtain funds, searching the literature, analysing the data statistically, preparing visual material and slides, speaking about it in public, writing it up for journals and so on. Books on various aspects of this subject are readily obtainable but this is an attempt to deal with all the steps that are necessary from the start to the finish and chapters have been planned sequentially with this in mind. Although most of the authors are doctors of medicine it should help those in any area of science where the undertaking and publishing of research is important. Marco Sorgi conceived the idea of the book and during an appointment in the University of Birmingham invited Clifford Hawkins to help in achieving its delivery. May the effort be found to be worthwhile.

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1991. Talking with Patients James Calnan, 1983. Klage Communication conversation, the consultation or interview, special people, special occasions, talking about diagnosis and prognosis, talking about treatment, the fatal illness, complaints and criticism. The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2000.
