

Fables

Fables are stories that are told that tell us a message. They usually have animals and the stories are designed so that a moral lesson is taught. Your teacher will read you a fable from a famous book called Aesop's fables. He wrote many stories that teach us valuable lessons in an interesting and amusing way.

The Lion and the Mouse:

Answer the following questions in your books after your teacher has read you the story:

1. What did all the animals call the lion?
2. Do you think the mouse was afraid of the lion? Why?
3. Why did the lion throw back his head and laugh at the suggestion that perhaps the mouse may save his life one day?
4. What happened to the lion?
5. How did the mouse save the lion?
6. What do you think the moral of the story is?

Your teacher will read the moral of the story to you. Write it down:

Look up the following words in your dictionary that may be new vocabulary from the story:

Squawk
Approve

scuttle
loped

grateful

scamper
despair

singe

The following paragraph is written in the past tense. Underline all the verbs and then rewrite the paragraph in the present tense by changing all those verbs:

There was once a mighty lion. He was powerful and strong and when he roared, the earth shook, the parrots squawked and the monkeys ran chattering to the tree tops. All the animals were afraid of him and they called him the King of the Beasts. The little mouse was especially frightened of the Lion for she knew that if one of his paws landed on top of her, she would be squashed as flat as a blade of grass.

In the sentences below, write down the word opposite to the one underlined:

1. Well little mouse, you have made me laugh.
2. Gently he lifted his paw from her tail.
3. The more he struggled the lighter he was held.
4. The mouse ran for the grass as fast as her legs could carry her.
