

It should be noted that if you are taking the exam on April 22nd and 23rd (a Day 1 exam) and 27th and 28th (a Day 2 exam).

This is an oral exam. You are receiving this information so you may prepare accordingly. Please read all the instructions and discuss them with your tutor afterwards. Don't forget to bring your identification (passport or card) as a reference.

Preparation: We have listed the main questions all you are going to discuss the preparation. We are asking you some things. Don't be too nervous about these things. However, especially and otherwise, you are required to write and discuss some of them as a part of the exam. Please read these and prepare them as much as you can. It is important to you and also to the examiners. Please remember to explain the significance and content of your writing.

Example:

Remember to bring your identification card with you. There will be a card in the room to show to the examiners. You must show it to the examiners at the time of the exam.

On Day 1, you will be asked to discuss the following questions. On Day 2, you will be asked to discuss the following questions.

1. In the beginning of the book, the author says that the story is about the life of a man. What is the author's main purpose in writing the book? Do you think the author is trying to tell us something about the world, or is he just trying to tell us something about the people?
2. Does the author's description of the world in the book make you feel like you are living in it?
3. The author says: "The world is not a place" (p. 10). What does he mean by this? Do you agree with him?
4. "There is a great deal of life in the world that is not in the world of the mind." (p. 10). What does he mean by this? Do you agree with him? Do you think the world is a place where we can find the answers to our questions?
5. What is the author's main purpose in writing the book? Do you think the author is trying to tell us something about the world, or is he just trying to tell us something about the people?
