

- 11. Federalism:
  - Federalism is a type of the system that governments will be able to control power.
- 12. Governmental Structure:
  - Federalism is a political system where local governments write laws, make their decisions regarding some governmental activities and enforce something is produced.
    - Executive: president, but just the US.
    - Local governments write on the US and called states (more local stuff, decisions, etc.)
    - They get to make their decisions.
  - Unitary System: local governments are subordinated to the national government.
    - Opposite of federalism.
- 13. Advantages:
  - Some of the national issues in American politics are, at their core, structures under federalism.
  - Some key issues involving federalism today are
    - Same sex marriage
    - Medical marijuana
    - Federal problems between federal issues: members of congress (if some are legal in some states but not in all states)
      - Problem constitutionally because not under them to regulate another state's laws.
    - Increasingly spreading that now other states go with medical marijuana and are allowed to that in order to not a risk and not it being not for sure.
- 14. Federal and State Power:
  - In general, the federal government has power over economic issues, the military and defense.
    - Because they affect everything in the nation and not just national level that local level things (like military and defense).
  - In general, state governments have power over social, moral, and family issues.
- 15. Problems and Arguments of Federalism:
  - Negative view: Federalism blocks progress and prevents powerful local initiatives.
    - Negative view: powerful local interest in a nation
    - Negative view is that sometimes it affects nations to deal on a smaller level.
  - Positive view: Federalism contributes to governmental strength, political flexibility, and fosters individual liberty and the development of leaders.
    - Chance to get insights of moving up through the chain.
