Nelson, 2020-04-17 For decades social scientists have assumed that fictive kinship is a phenomenon associated only with marginal peoples and people of color in the United States In this innovative book Nelson reveals the frequency texture and dynamics of relationships which are felt to be like family among the white middle class Drawing on extensive in depth interviews Nelson describes the quandaries and contradictions delight and anxiety benefits and costs choice and obligation in these relationships She shows the ways these fictive kinships are similar to one another as well as the ways they vary whether around age or generation co residence or the possibility of becoming real families Moreover she shows that different parties to the same relationship understand them in some similar and some very different ways Theoretically rich and beautifully written the book is accessible to the general public while breaking new ground for scholars in the field of family studies Seven Essentials for Family-Professional Partnerships in Early Intervention Bonnie Keilty, 2017-03-31 Family professional partnerships are essential to early intervention practice birth age 3 However building and sustaining these partnerships is complex work This book is about digging deeper and looking closer at what it takes to have successful relationships with each and every family The authors explore seven partnership concepts brought to life through the words and perspectives of families and professionals themselves New and veteran professionals can use the lessons learned from these accounts to more effectively work with families Each chapter ends with Questions for Daily Reflection to help early intervention professionals continue to develop their practice The final chapter describes themes that result from and span the seven concepts as well as the systems needed to support successful family professional partnerships Book Features Provides a set of concrete practices for partnering with families Presents authentic voices of families and professionals in action Promotes enhanced reflection as readers apply the lessons learned to their work Recognizes and highlights the individual nature of each family professional partnership Includes tools to help plan implement and evaluate the use of the practices described

Pathways to Adulthood for Disconnected Young Men in Low-Income Communities Kevin Roy,Nikki Jones,2014-03-26 As the chapters in this volume demonstrate young disadvantaged men from urban neighborhoods face a unique set of challenges and constraints as they transition to adulthood Yet these challenges are not always contained by place Research among Latino and White disadvantaged men in nonurban settings highlights the pressures that come along with fatherhood for disadvantaged men In contrast to popular understandings of absent or disengaged fathers findings reveal how fatherhood and increasing levels of interdependence during early adulthood can buffer men as they make the difficult transition to adulthood The innovative field based research featured in this volume illuminates the contexts processes and meanings in life pathways for disadvantaged men as they move from adolescence into adulthood and should help to inform policies and practices directed at minimizing their marginalization from mainstream society This is the 143rd volume in this series Its mission is to provide scientific and scholarly presentations on cutting edge issues and concepts in child and adolescent development Each volume focuses on a specific new direction or research topic and is edited by experts in that field

Inconceivable Valerie Bauman,2024-04-16 Inconceivable combines memoir and investigative reporting to reveal an underground community of sperm donors and recipients who have chosen to circumvent traditional fertility avenues and meet up on their own terms As an active participant in this community Valerie Bauman uses her own story as a lens into this movement of people attempting to dodge the costly and often discriminatory world of sperm banks and fertility clinics Inconceivable is a window into the unfair legal financial and medical entanglements that compel many single women and LGBTQ couples to take their fertility into their own hands

Making Room in Our Hearts Micky Duxbury,2007-05-07 Adopted persons face challenges their entire lives as they struggle to answer the most basic question Who am I The hope of open adoption is that adopted children will develop stronger identities if they have the opportunity to develop healthy ongoing relationships with their families of origin Making Room in Our Hearts offers an intimate look at how these relationships evolve over time with real life stories from families who have experienced open adoption first hand This book helps both adoptive and birth parents address their fears and concerns while offering them the support to put the child s psychological and spiritual needs at the center of adoption Based on interviews with more than one hundred adopted children birth and adoptive parents extended families professionals and experts the book is an effective and invaluable resource for those considering open adoption those experiencing it and professionals in the field Openness has altered the landscape of adoption and Making Room in Our Hearts will help us catch up to the reality that is open adoption today

rights of girls and women is continuously threatened in a wide range of global cultural contexts From the rise in laws restricting reproductive freedom to the growth in essentialist ideas about gender and the backlash to the MeToo movement the challenges facing girls and young women are as diverse as the activism networks established to address them Girls Take Action shines light on the myriad ways girls and young women are exercising agency in the face of injustice considering especially the role of community and collaboration in fostering activism networks and ultimately a more transnational understanding of girlhood
