and feminist political thought The SAGE Handbook of Feminist Theory Mary Evans, Clare Hemmings, Marsha Henry, Hazel Johnstone, Sumi Madhok, Ania Plomien, Sadie Wearing, 2014-08-12 At no point in recorded history has there been an absence of intense and heated discussion about the subject of how to conduct relations between women and men This Handbook provides a comprehensive guide to these omnipresent issues and debates mapping the present and future of thinking about feminist theory The chapters gathered here present the state of the art in scholarship in the field covering Epistemology and marginality Literary visual and cultural representations Sexuality Macro and microeconomics of gender Conflict and peace The most important consensus in this volume is that a central organizing tenet of feminism is its willingness to examine the ways in which gender and relations between women and men have been and are organized The authors bring a shared commitment to the critical appraisal of gender relations as well as a recognition that to think theoretically is not to detach concerns from lived experience but to extend the possibilities of understanding With this focus on theory and theorizing about the world in which we live this Handbook asks us across all disciplines and situations to abandon our taken for granted assumptions about the world and interrogate both the origin and the implications of our ideas about gender relations and feminism It is an essential reference work for advanced students and academics not only of feminist theory but of gender and sexuality across the humanities and social sciences Feminist Theory and Literary Practice Deborah L. Madsen, 2000-08-20 This book is an exploration of women's writing that focuses on the close links between literary texts and the theories that construct those texts as women's writing Each chapter deals with one of the issues or concepts that have engaged both authors and theorists rhetoric work consciousness nature class and race A detailed analysis shows how each concept has been used by feminists to construct a specific text in such a way that it is received as a work of women's writing particularly in American literature Using canonical texts from Charlotte Perkins Gilman through Kate Chopin and Willa Cather to Alice Walker and Ann Beattie Madsen engages with the major debates within feminist studies Moving on from Showalter's groundbreaking work to broaden the trajectory of feminist concern this book is an accessible account of the varieties of feminist thought within the context of the key American texts Feminism Beside Itself Diane Elam, 2013-10-28 This book brings together a distinguished group of scholars from several generations of feminists asking them to reflect on the history and identity of feminism Explores feminism in history and the conflict within feminism Engenderings Naomi Scheman, 2014-02-25 Naomi Scheman argues that the concerns of philosophy emerge not from the universal human condition but from conditions of privilege Her books represents a powerful challenge to the notion that gender makes no difference in the construction of philosophical reasoning At the same time it criticizes the narrow focus of most feminist theorizing and calls for a more inclusive form of inquiry (M)Other Perspectives Lynn Deboeck, Aoise Stratford, 2023-06-01 This anthology examines maternity in contemporary performance at the intersection of a wide range of topics from nationhood to mental health queer parenting embodied dramaturgy cultural practice and immigration Across the

both novels and short stories drama and poetry Together with the issue of spirituality the African American search for wholeness is analyzed as a source of creativity and agency As expressed in the contemporary literature of black women writers starting in the 1980s the search for wholeness reflects a beauty realized through the healing of the spirit and the body and is a process that takes on dimensions of reconciling the past and the present the mythical and the real the spiritual and the physical all in the context of an emerging world view that welcomes synthesis and expects both synthesis and generative contradictions The book will be a valuable collection for scholars of African American literature comparative American Ethnic literature American literature and spirituality as well as women s studies In addition it will be an important text for both undergraduate and graduate students in those fields As Professor Johnnella Butler 2006 points out the African American search for wholeness is tightly linked to the search for freedom and agency Ever since the 19th century African American writers have given expression to an African American self which functions in Western civilization simultaneously as a colonized other and an assertive self Due to the continuous ordeal of the African Diaspora this self is caught in between the binaries proposed by the material and the spiritual world seeking a balance where the person can become whole The search for wholeness feeds from cultural roots that imply the presence of ancestral spiritualism rememory and double consciousness Contemporary black women writers reflect the metaphor of building spiritual bridges seeking the possibilities of building a bridge to the archetypal African past that is carried in their memories as a presence that offers sustenance via spiritual reconnection Their works seek to bridge the gap between the myths and traditions of the past and contemporary African American culture The texts included in this collection are examples of writing as an exercise of what V v Clark calls Diaspora literacy The texts written by contemporary African American women writers explicitly show how to recognize and read the cultural signs left scattered along the road of progress In this way material acquisition is achieved along with cultural dispossession becoming a metaphor for the history of the African in America The powerful message is that one should not exclude the other

Experimenting on the Borders of Modernism Kristin Bluemel,1997 As one of the first English novelists to employ stream of consciousness as a narrative technique Dorothy Richardson ranks among modernism s most important experimentalists yet her epic autobiographical novel Pilgrimage has rarely received the kind of attention given to the writings of her contemporaries James Joyce Virginia Woolf and Marcel Proust Kristin Bluemel s study explores the relationship between experimental forms and oppositional politics in Pilgrimage demonstrating how the novel challenged the literary conventions and cultural expectations of the late Victorian and Edwardian world and linking these relationships to the novel s construction of a lesbian sexuality its use of medicine to interrogate class structures its feminist critique of early twentieth century science and Richardson s short stories and nonfiction

Elite White Men Ruling Joe R. Feagin,Kimberley Ducey,2017-04-07 This book examines the who what when where and how of elite white male dominance in U S and global society In spite of their domination in the United States and globally that we document herein elite white men have seldom been called out and analyzed as such They have received little to no explicit attention with regard to systemic racism issues as well as associated classism and sexism issues Almost all public and scholarly discussions of U S racism fail to explicitly foreground elite white men or to focus specifically on how their interlocking racial class and gender statuses affect their globally powerful decisionmaking Some of the power positions of these elite white men might seem obvious but they are rarely analyzed for their extraordinary significance While the principal focus of this book is on neglected research and policy questions about the elite white male role and dominance in the system of racial oppression in the United States and globally because of their positioning at the top of several societal hierarchies the authors periodically address their role and dominance in other oppressive e g class gender hierarchies

trailblazing conversation starting history of women s health from the earliest medical ideas about women s illnesses to hormones and autoimmune diseases brought together in a fascinating sweeping narrative Elinor Cleghorn became an unwell woman ten years ago She was diagnosed with an autoimmune disease after a long period of being told her symptoms were anything from psychosomatic to a possible pregnancy As Elinor learned to live with her unpredictable disease she turned to history for answers and found an enraging legacy of suffering mystification and misdiagnosis In Unwell Women Elinor Cleghorn traces the almost unbelievable history of how medicine has failed women by treating their bodies as alien and other often to perilous effect The result is an authoritative and groundbreaking exploration of the relationship between women and medical practice from the wandering womb of Ancient Greece to the rise of witch trials across Europe and from the dawn of hysteria as a catchall for difficult to diagnose disorders to the first forays into autoimmunity and the shifting understanding of hormones menstruation menopause and conditions like endometriosis Packed with character studies and case histories of women who have suffered challenged and rewritten medical orthodoxy and the men who controlled their fate this is a revolutionary examination of the relationship between women illness and medicine With these case histories Elinor pays homage to the women who suffered so strides could be made and shows how being unwell has become normalized in society and culture where women have long been distrusted as reliable narrators of their own bodies and pain But the time for real change is long overdue answers reside in the body in the testimonies of unwell women and their lives depend on medicine learning to listen

Reimagining Music Theory Chris Stover, 2024-12-27 Reimagining Music Theory Contexts

Communities Creativities invites instructors to rethink how we teach music theory challenging the traditional classical canon based pedagogy and offering new and alternative approaches The study and teaching of music theory are at a crucial and invigorating crossroads as conversations are being held about contesting canons transforming pedagogical practices and finding meaningful ways to make the field inclusive and diverse in repertoire methods and student experiences This book aims to reimagine music theory as an explicitly and radically dialogic creative nimble transdisciplinary space where thinking and acting can be both deep and broad where pluralities of knowledge systems and ways of doing and being can interact and mutually inform one another and where teachers learn from students as much as the other way around Rethinking what counts as music fundamentals opening music theory to a plurality of global practices and considering music theory as a creative and community practice are all addressed Incorporating interviews with scholar teachers at the forefront of innovative music theory pedagogy throughout the book offers music theory professors and instructors frameworks for enacting meaningful change in the music theory classroom

Women and Change in Cyprus Maria

Hadjipavlou, 2010-05-05 Following its entry into the EU in 2004 Cyprus has become a major migrant destination The influx of migrant workers has introduced a more complex ethnic dynamic into a country traditionally considered in light of its history of conflict between its Greek and Turkish ethnic nationals Maria Hadjipavlou argues that the focus on Cyprus national problem has long prevented Cypriot women to challenge Cyprus largely patriarchal and militaristic order to pursue women s rights and public visibility While many Cypriot women are now liberated from the home this is often due to female migrant domestic workers in effect reproducing patriarchal practices Hadjipavlou here examines the experiences of women from Greek Turkish Armenian Maronite and Latin communities and migrant domestic workers in the context of ethno national conflict ethnic divisions nationalism and militarism and argues for a multi communal feminist movement in Cyprus to better promote women s rights
