

Chapter Summaries

1 The Big Winner

- Peter Warren Hatcher wins a turtle at Jimmy Fergo's birthday party by guessing the number of jelly beans in a jar. He names his pet Oribole.
- Peter lives on the tenth floor of an old apartment building on 65th Street in New York City.
- Harry Gershtimmer is the elevator operator.
- Peter's mother doesn't like the way Oribole smells.
- Peter's father, who is in the advertising business, writes a commercial for the Judy-Q company. The family gets a whole crate of Judy-Q from the president of the company.
- Peter's biggest problem isn't his mother or his father. It's his two-and-a-half-year-old brother, Farley Orestes Hatcher, also known as Fudge.
- Fudge is always in Peter's way, messing up things, screaming and throwing fits, kicking and banging his fists.
- Peter warns Fudge that Oribole is his turtle and he is not to touch the animal.

2 Mr. and Mrs. Judy-Q

- Mr. Yarty, the president of the Judy-Q company, and his wife are coming from Chicago to New York. Peter's father invites them to stay with the Hatcher family rather than in a hotel.
- Fudge's bedroom is converted into a guest room, and Fudge's crib is moved into Peter's room.
- Peter's mother spends the day in the kitchen. Fudge gets fed up of the flowers from the silver bowl she puts on the dinner table.
- When she arrives, Mrs. Yarty picks up Fudge right away calling him the "cutest little boy!"
- Mrs. Yarty gives Fudge a noisy windup train. She gives Peter, who is now in fourth grade, a picture dictionary, which he thanks her for though he has had his own regular dictionary since he was eight.
- Fudge brings out Peter's old, worn-out picture dictionary and shows it to Mrs. Yarty.
- When the family and the Yartys are in the middle of their roast beef, Fudge climbs out of his crib and appears carrying Oribole's bowl.
- Mrs. Yarty screams because she can't stand reptiles, and Mr. Yarty instructs that Peter's parents have not taught him and Fudge good manners.
- During dinner, Fudge happens wearing a Halloween gorilla mask, causing Mrs. Yarty to scream so loud Peter's mother spills coffee all over the floor.
- Peter awakes the next morning to find Fudge standing over him and Oribole crawling around on his arm. Later, Fudge plays with his noisy new train and messes everybody in the house, including the Yartys.
- The Yartys announce their plans to leave for a hotel after breakfast, only to find that Fudge has decorated their suitcase with green stamps.
- Peter's father sees the Judy-Q account.
- Both Peter and his father admit that they never liked Judy-Q.

3 The Family Dog

- Peter's father says he is glad he lost the Judy-Q account so he can spend more time on the new TV commercial for the Toddle-Biss company.
- Peter thinks his father might use him in the commercial because he can stand on his head, but his father says he doesn't plan on having any head standers.
- Fudge suddenly stops eating, and on the third day Peter agrees to stand on his head in the kitchen to make Fudge laugh so his mother can stuff some baked potato into his mouth.
- The next day, Peter refuses to stand on his head for Fudge even though his mother begs, and he is upset that nobody else worries about him the way they worry about Fudge.
- Fudge starts hiding under the table pretending to be a dog. His mother puts a plate of food on the floor.
