Plato and Popcorn William G. Smith, 2015-09-18 Many believe there is nothing like seeing a good movie one that is enjoyable both in itself and for the thought processes it stimulates From The Usual Suspects and When Harry Met Sally to Gandhi and The Color Purple this handbook functions as a guide to watching and reflecting upon 75 great films The author a philosophy instructor presents a text designed to lead readers through a series of intellectual gymnastics to help strengthen critical thinking abilities and to inspire exciting and philosophical thoughts and discussions Civil Disobedience Death Fate and Determinism War Sexism and Women s Issues Gay Rights The Greatest Happiness Principle Anxiety and Inauthenticity and The Holocaust are examples of the 18 different categories into which the films are divided Each chapter includes the author s introductory comments to be read prior to watching movies along with a section of Questions to Ponder to be considered afterward Photographs of many movie scenes are included throughout the text Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Classic Questions and Contemporary Film Dean A.

Kowalski, 2015-08-26 Featuring significant revisions and updates Classic Questions and Contemporary Film An Introduction to Philosophy 2nd Edition uses popular movies as a highly accessible framework for introducing key philosophical concepts Explores 28 films with 18 new to this edition including Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Hotel Rwanda V for Vendetta and Memento Discusses numerous philosophical issues not covered in the first edition including a new chapter covering issues of personal identity the meaningfulness of life and death and existentialism Offers a rich pedagogical framework comprised of key classic readings chapter learning outcomes jargon free argument analysis critical thinking and trivia questions a glossary of terms and textboxes with notes on the movies discussed Revised to be even more accessible to beginning philosophers The Influence of Imagination Lee Easton, Randy Schroeder, 2008-01-23 This collection of essays examines the potential connections between speculative fiction and actual social change Through a variety of approaches the contributors explore whether consumers of science fiction and fantasy narratives can experience a real shift in their worldviews as a result of that consumption Topics include the utopian vision of California in Ursula K LeGuin s Always Coming Home the changing role of women in science fiction pulp magazines and the representation of progress and social change in popular graphic novels

Making Sense of Nature Noel Castree, 2013-08-15 We listen to a cacophony of voices instructing us how to think and feel about nature including our own bodies The news media wildlife documentaries science magazines and environmental NGOs are among those clamouring for our attention But are we empowered by all this knowledge or is our dependence on various communities allowing our thoughts sentiments and activities to be unduly governed by others Making Sense of Nature shows that what we call nature is made sense of for us in ways that make it central to social order social change and social dissent By utilising insights and extended examples from anthropology cultural studies human geography philosophy politics sociology science studies this interdisciplinary text asks whether we can better make sense of nature for ourselves and thus participate more meaningfully in momentous decisions about the future of life human and non human on the planet This book shows how nature can be made sense of without presuming its naturalness The challenge is not so much to rid ourselves of the idea of nature and its collateral concepts such as genes but instead we need to be more alert to how why and with what effects ideas about nature get fashioned and deployed in specific situations Among other things the book deals with science and scientists the mass media and journalists ecotourism literature and cinema environmentalists advertising and big business This innovative text contains numerous case studies and examples from daily life to put theory and subject matter into context as well as study tasks a glossary and suggested further reading The case studies cover a range of topics range from forestry in Canada and Guinea to bestiality in Washington State to how human genetics is reported in Western newspapers to participatory science experiments in the UK Making Sense of Nature will empower readers from a wide range of fields across the social sciences humanities and physical sciences

Lights in the Darkness Phillip M.
