Gcse Physics Higher Tier 2013:

Education Policy in England 2010–2024 Rebecca Morris, Thomas Perry, 2025-08-28 This text presents an informative overview of Conservative led education policy over the last 14 years The book provides a broad and detailed picture of the developing education landscape in England during this period highlighting the transformational and sometimes radical reforms that the country has seen Crucially the book draws together contributions from over 40 esteemed education researchers working in the UK The chapters showcase work from a range of experienced and early career researchers ensuring original thought provoking and evidence informed perspectives as we examine the impact of recent policy and explore how it might develop into the future Key thematic areas covered include Restructuring and governing the system Teaching policy practice and professionalism Confronting the challenges of inclusion and inequality Steering and transforming the curriculum and assessment This timely collection will interest students at all levels researchers education professionals and policymakers It sheds important light on this tumultuous era for education policy and will inform those interested in this area for years to come

Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 2013

From GCSEs to EBCs Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education Committee, 2013 The Government's plans for replacing GCSEs with new English Baccalaureate Certificates in some subjects is trying to do too much too fast Introducing several fundamental changes at the same time and to a tight timetable will jeopardise the quality of the reforms and may threaten the stability of the wider exam system GCSEs need significant improvements in order to restore public confidence in the exam system but the Government still needs to make the case that the GCSE brand is so discredited that it is beyond repair MPs are also concerned about the impact of the changes on subjects outside the English Baccalaureate where students will be taking GCSEs for some time to come according to the Government's plans The report also questions how well the Government's proposals will serve lower attaining pupils who are often the most disadvantaged There is no evidence that the proposed changes will help to tackle under achievement or narrow the attainment gap between the richest and poorest students any more effectively than GCSEs The Government is also called upon to re think its plans for a Statement of Achievement specifically for lower attaining pupils MPs agree that changes are needed to the way in which exams are run but they raise serious concerns about franchising subjects to exam boards The report is critical of the Government's decision to abolish some GCSEs before publishing the outcomes of the National Curriculum Review and its proposed changes to the school accountability system MPs also note the wide ranging stakeholder opposition to many of the Government's proposals
