Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in High School Mark Newman, Xiaoning Chen, 2021-11-15 Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in High School Connecting Inquiry and Visual Literacy to Promote Progressive Learning explores effective strategies for teaching social studies to diverse learners The centerpiece is a visual literacy framework that integrates inquiry primary source analysis and visual literacy to provide a progressive learning sequence to meet the varied needs of learners The visual literacy framework brings together related aspects of progressive sequential learning into a cohesive whole It has an adaptable structure that allows teachers to customize learning activities to meet individual student needs The progressive learning sequence has varied modes of learning that help teachers move students from basic to proficient to advanced levels of support The book is organized into two related parts The first three chapters provide important content and context on social studies multilingual learner education and the visual literacy framework The remaining chapters discuss civics U S history world history geography and economics and social sciences Each chapter defines the subject area briefly traces its development as a high school subject over time and then offers classroom exercises for using the visual literacy framework in these disciplines The exercises are plotted so that differing levels of the visual literacy framework are explored throughout the book

Malaysian Media Studies: Integrating Perspectives (UM Press)
 Azizah Hamzah, Amira Firdaus, 2016 This edited volume revisits developments in the field of media education and media studies at a time when society is experiencing a ubiquitous networked digital media environment Rapid advances in media and communication technologies and the accompanying developments in social cultural political and economic realms pose unexpected challenges to the curricula of long established media and communication schools As opposed to rigidly structured nation based mass media systems of the past century the new global media sphere celebrates the breaking down of borders whether spatial cultural or social Today in the second half of the second decade of the 21st century this problem translates into what and how to teach students of media who in all likelihood are more adept media consumers and producers than their teachers In a region where educational institutions and educators don t transform as fast as media technologies do there is a need to problematize and to reflect upon the situation This edited volume examines critical issues related to media studies at local institutions of higher learning and includes a sampling of research charting new directions in local media scholarship Contributions to this edited volume reflect the shared concerns of media educators and researchers in Malaysia and two neighboring countries Indonesia and Thailand Three main themes underscore this volume reflecting their importance to the evolution of media education and to a certain extent research as well Historical development of media education and training Current developments and future trajectories of media education in a globalized digital media environment Analysis of media and society

Education Restated Elliot Regenstein, 2022-07-26 Education Restated Getting Policy Right on Accountability Teacher Pay and School Choice offers the education policy community a roadmap for change in three hot button policy areas In each of these areas policy has been anchored around the wrong core values By putting the right core values at the heart of policy state governments can create more favorable conditions for education improvement at the local level Education Restated takes a pragmatic approach to policy change recognizing that the forces that created today s policies have not gone away and that on complex issues there are legitimate competing interests This book harmonizes the best ideas of opposing policy camps and identifies opportunities to strengthen connections between K 12 and early childhood For advocates seeking common ground with historical adversaries Education Restated provides some ideas on where they might find it
