

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

School Choice and the Betrayal of Democracy Robert Asen, 2021-10-04 Evidence shows that the increasing privatization of K 12 education siphons resources away from public schools resulting in poorer learning conditions underpaid teachers and greater inequality But as Robert Asen reveals here the damage that market based education reform inflicts on society runs much deeper At their core these efforts are antidemocratic Arguing that democratic communities and public education need one another Asen examines the theory driving privatization popularized in the neoliberalism of Milton and Rose Friedman as well as the case for school choice promoted by former secretary of education Betsy DeVos and the controversial voucher program of former Wisconsin governor Scott Walker What Asen finds is that a market based approach holds not just a different view of distributing education but a different vision of society When the values of the market choice competition and self interest shape national education that policy produces individuals Asen contends with no connections to community and no obligations to one another The result is a society at odds with democracy Probing and thought provoking School Choice and the Betrayal of Democracy features interviews with local on the ground advocates for public education and offers a countering vision of democratic education one oriented toward civic relationships community and equality This book is essential reading for policymakers advocates of public education citizens and researchers Third Symposium Proceedings. New Ways of Teaching and Learning Janina Morska, Alan Rogerson, This volume contains the papers presented at the Third International Symposium on New Ways of Teaching Learning held from August 6 10 2024 at the Aemilia Hotel Bologna Italy The Conference was organized by The Mathematics Education for the Future Project an international educational project founded in 1986 and dedicated to innovation in mathematics statistics science and computer education world wide Secular War Stacey Gutkowski, 2013-11-27 How have long standing and unconscious secular assumptions about religion shaped the post 9 11 climate and its wars Stacey Gutkowski explores this little examined yet crucial element of British perceptions of and policy towards Jihadism over the last decade to draw critical conclusions about the relationship between war and the secular She points to a surprisingly coherent body of secular beliefs that have fuelled policies in Iraq Afghanistan and counter terrorism and that have had mixed results responsible for both positive strategies and tragic errors The theory Gutkowski develops on the impact of this secular approach to warfare holds a broader global significance and cannot be viewed as just a British phenomenon This book addresses ongoing and critical debates such as the overreach of Western liberal interventionism in the Middle East and speaks to policy makers security analysts and students of IR Foreign Policy and Security Studies

Children of the Northern Forest Jamie Sayen, 2023-10-31 This no holds barred narrative of the failure of conservation in northern New England s forests envisions a wilder more equitable lower carbon future for forest dependent communities Jamie Sayen approaches the story of northern New England s undeveloped forests from the viewpoints of the previously unheard the forest and the nonhuman species it sustains the First Peoples and in more recent times the disenfranchised human voices of the forest including those of loggers mill workers and citizens who like Henry David Thoreau wish to speak a kind word for nature From 1988 to 2016 paper companies sold their timberlands and closed seventeen paper mills in northern New England Policy makers ceded veto power to large absentee landowners who tried to preserve the status quo by demanding additional tax cuts and other subsidies for economic elites They vetoed measures designed to restore and preserve forest health at present about half of the former industrial forests are classified as degraded and the regional economy continues to be trapped in low value commodity markets This book operates as a case study of how a rural resource region can respond to a global economy responsible for climate change habitat loss and degradation and environmental injustice Sayen offers a blueprint for restoring vast wildlands and transitioning to a lower carbon high value adding local economy while protecting the natural rights of humans nonhumans and unborn generations
