in Grades 3-6 Doing What Works Judy Tilton Brunner, 2013-01-12 Doing What Works Literacy Strategies for the Next Level will assist educators as they support students in the mastery of vocabulary comprehension and study skills required by the Common Core State Standards. All strategies have been carefully selected based on their ease of use, utility in terms of scaffolding, differentiation, and simplicity of format. Judy Tilton Brunner designed this key sourcebook for educators who need or want to cultivate their students' vocabulary development, reading comprehension, note taking, and general study skills. Doing What Works provides practical, effective, and research-based strategies to help students remember and understand what they read at the highest levels of cognition, layering of texts, close reading, collaborating using a variety of sources, teaching uncommon vocabulary, and posing text-dependent questions. By incorporating these teaching strategies into classroom instruction, educators will teach with purpose and students will learn with independence. I Don't Get It Judy Tilton Brunner, 2011-02-16 Literacy continues to be a hot topic for educators and parents. I Don't Get It: Helping Students Understand What They Read is a practical, easy-to-use resource for classroom teachers and literacy coaches. Parents will also find the information helpful as they assist their children with homework and support for reading comprehension. This book will help to improve student literacy by offering a variety of strategies designed to help students think as they read printed text. All have been carefully considered for ease of use, utility in terms of differentiation, and simplicity of format. The author evaluates each strategy according to Bloom's Taxonomy and provides suggestions for adaptation through the use of technology. Providing practical, effective, and research-based strategies designed to help students read, understand, and remember challenging material, the book can be read cover to cover on the run or as a resource in response to a specific expressed need by teaching staff. Forum, 1986
