Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce,1942 Silent Strategists Manley R. Irwin,2013-09-03 Few historians have looked beyond the Teapot Dome scandal and examined the naval policies of President Warren Harding and his secretary of navy Edwin Denby Both sponsored policies that nourished the nation s industrial infrastructure Their legacy would yield a dividend of growth production employment and ultimately national security In this revised edition Professor Manley R Irwin brings forth an innovative approach to researching these policies papers and archives adding additional research from new documents which expand enhance and complement the first edition The book argues that Harding and Denby exercised unusual foresight in preparing the navy for a war against Japan Both individuals promulgated structural changes in the department and adopted a set of management tools that would redound to the navy in its prosecution of its Pacific offensive in World War II Irwin s thorough investigation and addition of new evidence from original documents provides invaluable details and insights into the lasting legacy of the Harding administration Research Reviews - United States. Office of
