Jurisdiction and Arbitration Agreements in International Commercial Law

Zheng Sophia Tang, 2014-02-05 Arbitration and jurisdiction agreements are frequently used in transnational commercial contracts to reduce risk gain efficacy and acquire certainty and predictability Because of the similarities between these two types of procedural autonomy agreements they are often treated in a similar way by courts and practitioners This book offers a comprehensive study of the prerequisites effectiveness and enforcement of exclusive jurisdiction and arbitration agreements in international dispute resolution It examines whether jurisdiction and arbitration clauses have identical effects in private international law and whether they have been or should be given the same treatment by most countries in the world By comparing the treatment of these clauses in the US China UK and EU Zheng Sophia Tang demonstrates how in practice exclusive jurisdiction and arbitration agreements are enforced The book considers whether the Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements could be treated as a litigating counterpart to the New York Convention and whether it could work successfully to facilitate judicial cooperation and party autonomy in international commerce This book breaks new ground in combining updated materials in EU US and UK law with unique resources on Chinese law and practice It will be valuable for academics and practitioners working in the field of private international law and international arbitration

Hoover's Secret War against Axis Spies Raymond J. Batvinis, 2014-04-28 The world was at war America precariously poised on the sidelines But already a second secret war was well underway with the United States very much in the thick of it While he fought on the home front to consolidate the FBI's intelligence gathering power J Edgar Hoover was conducting an all out campaign to make his agency America's first foreign espionage service a campaign that would lead to an uneasy alliance with British intelligence in a brilliantly successful operation to undermine Germany throughout the Second World War While pieces of the story have been told before only now in this work by FBI historian and former agent Raymond Batvinis does this crucial chapter in the history of World War II and of the FBI receive its full due Taking up the tale begun in his acclaimed Origins of FBI Counterintelligence Batvinis mines a wealth of heretofore untapped resources to expose Hoover's remarkable connivances and accomplishments in concert and occasionally contention with the Allies in outsmarting German intelligence Hoover's Secret War opens up a world of spy rings secret and double agents surveillance codes and ciphers wire taps microdots mail drops invisible ink radio transmissions and deception and disinformation as it tracks the warring nations spreading their intelligence tentacles throughout Europe and North and South America As it documents the rocky evolution of the FBI's relationship with Britain's vaunted M15 and M16 the book brings to light the feud between Hoover and William Stephenson director of the British Secret Intelligence Service's U.S. operation BSC Batvinis reveals how the agency gained access to ULTRA intelligence thanks to the British decryption of the ENIGMA code along with the strenuous efforts to keep the Germans in the dark about it He uncovers eye opening details of the FBI s participation in the famed Double Cross System which effectively turned German agents against the Fatherland among them a flamboyant larger than life playboy a world famous French flyer and a lecherous Dutchman Batvinis tells for the first time how the Bureau manipulated these agents and how it transmitted deceptive information critical to the Normandy landings the Allied invasion of the Marshall Islands and the atomic bomb program among other matters Rich with secrets and surprises worthy of the finest spy fiction this true story of espionage and counterintelligence gives us our first clear look at the secret second world war and a significant moment in history for the FBI for America and for the world The User's Directory of
