the crown of five towers which I had planned for it so that to it and its royal brother the country about would do homage And so he parted from me and I fell into a sympathetic mood of melancholy until the birds of morning which dwelt in its thousand orifices greeted the sun joyously and waked me out of my slumber How freshly it shone in the morning rays how joyfully I stretched my arms towards it surveying its vast harmonious masses animated by countless delicate details of structure as in the works of eternal Nature every form down to the smallest fibril alive and everything contributing to the purpose of the whole How lightly the monstrous solidly grounded building soared into the air how free and delicate everything about it and yet solid for eternity To your teaching noble genius I owe thanks that I did not faint and sink before your heights and depths but that into my soul flowed a drop of that calm rapture of the mighty soul which could look on this creation and like God say It is good The Year-book of the Scientific and Learned Societies of Great Britain and Ireland ,1901
