

The background of the cover is a painting of two people sitting on a patterned rug, each holding a cup of coffee. The person on the left is wearing a dark jacket with orange buttons and holds a blue cup. The person on the right is wearing a brown sweater and holds a yellow cup. The scene is intimate and cozy.

Confino, Paul Betts, Dirk Schumann, 2008-07-01 Recent years have witnessed growing scholarly interest in the history of death Increasing academic attention toward death as a historical subject in its own right is very much linked to its pre eminent place in 20th century history and Germany predictably occupies a special place in these inquiries This collection of essays explores how German mourning changed over the 20th century in different contexts with a particular view to how death was linked to larger issues of social order and cultural self understanding It contributes to a history of death in 20th century Germany that does not begin and end with the Third Reich Outlines of English History with Memory Formulas

Henry Alfred Duboc, 1900 Shared History, Divided Memory Elazar Barkan, Elizabeth A. Cole, Kai Struve, 2007 From Memory to Marble Elizabeth Rankin, Rolf Michael Schneider, 2020-02-10 For the first time the 92 metre frieze of the Voortrekker Monument in Pretoria one of the largest historical narratives in marble has been made the subject of a book The pictorial narrative of the Boer pioneers who conquered South Africa's interior during the Great Trek 1835-52 represents a crucial period of South Africa's past Conceptualising the frieze both reflected on and contributed to the country's socio political debates in the 1930s and 1940s when it was made The book considers the active role the Monument played in the rise of Afrikaner nationalism and the development of apartheid as well as its place in post apartheid heritage The frieze is unique in that it provides rare evidence of the complex processes followed in creating a major monument Based on unpublished documents drawings and models these processes are unfolded step by step from the earliest discussions of the purpose and content of the frieze through all the stages of its design to its shipping to post war Italy to be copied into marble from Monte Altissimo up to its final installation in the Monument The book examines how visual representation transforms historical memory in what it chooses to recount and the forms in which it is depicted The second volume expands on the first by investigating each of the twenty seven scenes of the frieze in depth providing new insights into not only the frieze but also South Africa's history Fran ois van Schalkwyk of African Minds co publisher with De Gruyter writes From Memory to Marble is an open access monograph in the true sense of the word Both volumes of the digital version of the book are available in full and free of charge from the date of publication This approach to publishing democratises access to the latest scholarly publications across the globe At the same time a book such as From Memory to Marble with its unique and exquisite photographs of the frieze as well as its wealth of reproduced archival materials demands reception of a more traditional kind that is on the printed page For this reason the book is likewise available in print as two separate volumes The printed and digital books should not be seen as separate incarnations each brings its own advantages working together to extend the reach and utility of From Memory to Marble to a range of interested readers For more material you can browse at Stanford's database Voortrekker Monumentality a digital archive Conflict Archaeology, Historical Memory, and the Experience of War Mark Axel Tveskov, Ashley Ann Bissonnette, 2023-01-10 This volume presents approaches to the archaeology of war that move beyond the forensic analysis of battlefields fortifications and other sites of conflict to consider the historical memory commemoration and social experience of war Muhenda (English version) Wilson Miguel, After the success and also the breaking of the law of the black lives matter movement all blacks around the world were expelled forced to return to Africa creating a political division between blacks and whites But the explosion of global warming and the rupture of the ozone layer grants world dominion and power over the only kingdom on the planet that holds natural resources the kingdom of Muhenda in Africa A place where white people were never welcome However an agent of the intelligence of the whites manages to enter Muhenda The king of Muhenda is murdered and the white man is sentenced to death for the crime and as retaliation all the remaining whites were made slaves Years later a dictator and tyrant empire rises dominating all of Africa inflicting terror oppression inequality and pain Led by the new king of Muhenda and the brother of the deceased the emperor Luther Nankela That situation forces Sowety a young African warrior queen and Selena a young white slave to stand up step up and fight against the new system Two different women two enemy races one almost impossible gold freedom The New Tablet of Memory, Shewing Every Memorable Event in History, from the Earliest Period to the Year 1811, Etc TABLET., 1811

Modernities, Memory and Mutations Abby Day, Mia Lövheim, 2016-03-03 Grace Davie one of the world's most influential scholars in contemporary sociology of religion has furthered a tradition developed by David Martin and others in comparative sociology of religion and modernity in European and international perspective Davie's writings on belief and belonging particularly in a context outside active Church participation have contributed important understandings of the cultural role of religion as memory and practice in contemporary European societies Through her most recent work on new roles of religion in relation to the political legal and welfare sectors of society she has addressed debates on the resurgence of religion and the post secular condition Modernities Memory and Mutations presents an overview and critical engagement with contemporary themes in the sociology of religion which will inform current and forthcoming generations of scholars Reflecting on how Grace Davie s contributions have influenced their own work and wider debates in the field leading international scholars engage with themes Davie has critically explored across religious studies and mainstream sociology evolving a new research agenda for sociology of religion Spirit of the English Magazines ,1826 Imaginal Memory and the Place of Hiroshima Michael Perlman,1988-01-01 Hiroshima claims a crucial yet neglected place in the psychic terrain of our individual and collective memories Drawing on recent work in depth psychology and Jungian thought this study explores the ancient art of remembering by envisioning places and images that are impressed upon the memory Enthusiastically used by ancient medieval and Renaissance explorers of soul and spirit the art of memory became a profound expression of striving for cultural reform and an end to religious cruelty Imaginal Memory and the Place of Hiroshima shows that images arising from the place of Hiroshima reveal with stark exactitude the psychic situation of our world Specific images are explored that embody unsuspected psychological values beyond their role as reminders of the concrete horror of nuclear war The process of remembering these images deepens into a commemoration of the fundamental powers at work in the psyche powers that are critical to the development of a sustained cultural commitment to peace and to the deepening and revitalizing of contemporary psychological life English Studies Mehmet Ali Çelikel,Baysar Taniyan,2015-09-18 This volume offers a selection of revised versions of the papers presented at the 7th International IDEA Conference held at Pamukkale University in Denizli Turkey organised by the Association of English Language and Literary Studies in Turkey The contributions to this book offer a wide range of research from scholars on a variety of topics in English literature including Shakespearean studies Victorian colonial and postcolonial literature poetry and drama studies The volume also includes a number of informative research articles on comparative and translation studies which will offer assistance to young scholars in their academic studies In addition to acting as a guide to young academics the book will also function as a fruitful reference book in a wide range of English literary studies The Spirit of the English Magazines ,1826 Before 30 (English Version) Philip Mantofa,Sianne Ribkah,2023-02-24 God has always used youth He has always called on the young to be witnesses of His glory This generation is no exception Before 30 is a riveting account of how the Lord Jesus touched the life of a young man Philip Mantofa delivered him from the depths of violence and depression and used him mightily as a chosen vessel of revival in Indonesia and Asia While Pastor Philip was still in his twenties a divine firebrand sparked city wide revivals which were noted for creating immediate and enduring impact particularly among young people More than 200 000 people experienced salvation while scores of youths were equipped and commissioned to pioneer thriving local churches Such a transforming anointing and influence can only arise from a life deeply rooted in Scripture and an intimate fellowship with the Holy Spirit Before 30 is evidence that God is able to raise young people to become standard bearers even for the older generation
