influence of Byzantine palace architecture long after the fall of Constantinople Eclecticism in Late Medieval Visual Culture at the Crossroads of the Latin, Greek, and Slavic Traditions Maria Alessia Rossi, Alice Isabella Sullivan, 2021-11-22 This volume builds upon the new worldwide interest in the global Middle Ages It investigates the prismatic heritage and eclectic artistic production of Eastern Europe between the fourteenth and seventeenth centuries while challenging the temporal and geographical parameters of the study of medieval Byzantine post Byzantine and early modern art Contact and interchange between primarily the Latin Greek and Slavic cultural spheres resulted in local assimilations of select elements that reshaped the artistic landscapes of regions of the Balkan Peninsula the Carpathian Mountains and further north The specificities of each region and in modern times politics and nationalistic approaches have reinforced the tendency to treat them separately preventing scholars from questioning whether the visual output could be considered as an expression of a shared history The comparative and interdisciplinary framework of this volume provides a holistic view of the visual culture of these regions by addressing issues of transmission and appropriation as well as notions of cross cultural contact while putting on the global map of art history the eclectic artistic production of Eastern Europe Women, Men and Eunuchs Elizabeth James, 2013-01-11 The collected papers in this volume present a unique introduction both to the history of women of men and eunuchs or the third sex in Byzantium and to the various theoretical and methodological approaches through which the topic can be examined The contributors use evidence from both texts and images to give a wide ranging picture of the place of women and Byzantine society and the perceptions of women held by that society Women Men and Eunuchs offers a unique and valuable exploration of the issue of gender in Byzantium which will fascinate anyone interested in ancient and medieval history and gender studies Illuminated Prophet Books: A Study of Byzantine Manuscripts of the Major and Minor Prophets John Lowden, 1988 Mary of Nazareth Christopher Bryan, 2024-11-05 A theology of Mary's role in the incarnation as it was understood by the earliest Christians A central figure in Christian tradition Mary of Nazareth the mother of Jesus is both pivotal in theologies of the incarnation and a source of theological controversy In this volume bible scholar and priest Christopher Bryan examines the role of Mary in the theology of the first generations of Christians Considering every reference to Mary in the New Testament in the order that the biblical texts were written Mary of Nazareth situates biblical texts treatment of Mary within first century culture and examines changing theologies of Mary and the incarnation among the earliest generations of Christians The book concludes with Bryan's reflections on Christian memories of Mary and their implications for some historical theological controversies Ideal for Bible study or group discussion Mary of Nazareth makes current biblical scholarship accessible and engaging Study questions conclude each chapter and further notes in the back of the book invite interested readers to dig deeper Byzantine Images and their Afterlives Professor Lynn Jones, 2014-06-28 The twelve papers written for this volume reflect the wide scope of Annemarie Weyl Carr's interests and the equally wide impact of her career They are linked by Carr's expansive body of work which ties together issues of patronage production and influence across the medieval Mediterranean The volume examines influences in manuscript production and reception imperial patronage relics and reliquaries form and style in Cypriot architecture and icons and the relationship between original and copy in medieval art Visual Arts in the Worshipping Church DeBoer,2016 Although numerous studies have examined biblical and theological rationales for using the visual arts in worship this book by Lisa J DeBoer fills in a piece of the picture missing so far the social dimensions of both our churches and the various art worlds represented in our congregations The first part of the book looks at Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism in turn including case studies of specific congregations showing how each tradition s use of the visual arts reveals an underlying ecclesiology DeBoer then focuses on six themes that emerge when Orthodox Catholic and Protestant uses of the visual arts are examined together the arts as expressions of the church s local and universal character the meanings attributed to particular styles of art for the church the role of the arts in enculturating the gospel and more DeBoer s Visual Arts in the Worshipping Church will focus and deepen the thinking of pastors worship leaders artists students and laypeople regarding what the arts might do in the midst of their congregations The Conservation of Decorated Surfaces on Earthen
