Getting Off at Elysian Fields John Pope, 2015-10-19 No city in America knows how to mark death with more funerary panache than New Orleans The pageants commemorating departed citizens are often in themselves works of performance art A grand obituary remains key to this Stygian passage And no one writes them like New Orleanian John Pope Collected here are not just simple mindless recitations of schools and workplaces marriages and mourners bereft These pieces in Getting Off at Elysian Fields Obituaries from the New Orleans Times Picayune are full blooded life stories with accounts of great achievements dubious dabbings unavoidable foibles relationships gone sour and happenstances that turn out to be life changing To be sure there are stories about Carnival monarchs great philanthropists and a few politicians But because New Orleans embraces eccentric behavior there are stories of people who colored way outside the lines For instance there was the doctor who used his plasma to make his flowers grow and the philanthropist who took money she had put aside for a fur coat to underwrite the lawsuit that desegregated Tulane University A letter carrier everyone loved turned out to have been a spy during World War II and a fledgling lawyer changed his lifelong thoughts about race when he saw blind people going into a Christmas party through separate doors one for white people and another for African Americans Then there was the punctilious judge who got down on his hands and knees to edge his lawn with scissors Because New Orleans funerals are distinctive the author includes accounts of four that he covered complete with soulful singing and even some dancing As a popular local bumper sticker indisputably declares New Orleans We Put the Fun in Funeral

Rottenkid Brigit Binns, 2024-03-05 A memoir sauteed in Hollywood stories world travel and always the need to belong Prolific cookbook author Brigit Binns coming of age memoir co starring her alcoholic actor father Edward Binns and glamorous but viciously smart narcissistic mother reveals how simultaneous privilege and profound neglect lead Brigit to seek comfort in the kitchen eventually allowing her to find some sense of self worth In the old Hollywood of her childhood Brigit seems to live in an elite world But when her parents eventually divorce her father flees and her mother sends her off to boarding school so she can more easily conduct her decades long romance with a married California governor Brigit racks up seven schools and a host of bad decisions before the age of 16 Marriage to an Englishman takes her across the pond and to professional cooking school But when that life comes crashing down she returns heartbroken and alone to Los Angeles eighteen years after vowing never to return Here she thrives cold pitching herself to top chefs as co author for their cookbooks Peppered with humor and seasoned with optimism Brigit s story is an entertaining tribute to female resilience Wild Exuberance Rebecca Foster,Caroline M. Welsh,2005-06-16 Early in his career critics and collectors widely recognized that Harold Weston 1894 1972 was capturing and saying something unusual in his paintings There is a young American painter wrote Duncan Phillips who stirs in me the hope for a re birth on this new soil of something that was not lost to the art of painting with the passing of Vincent van Gogh Along with 104 color and ten black and white plates of Weston s works the catalog includes essays that cover myriad aspects of Weston s life and art The Adirondack Museum s chief curator Caroline M Welsh explores nature and wilderness preservation as themes in twentieth century art and places Weston in the context of his contemporaries who painted the Adirondacks The biographical essay by the exhibition s guest curator Rebecca Foster follows the unfolding of a career in parallel to the unfolding of a life Weston s rich technique is explored by Stephen Bennett Phillips curator at the Phillips Collection in an analysis of the painting Theodore E Stebbins Jr curator of American art at the Fogg Art Museum provides an introduction to the catalogue Why Is My Mother Getting a Tattoo? Jancee Dunn,2009-06-23 Despite her forty years and a successful career as a rock journalist Jancee Dunn still feels like a teenager especially around her parents and sisters Looking around Dunn realizes that she s not alone in this regression Her friends all with successful jobs marriages and families of their own still feel like kids around their moms and dads too That gets Dunn to thinking Do we ever really grow up Why Is My Mother Getting a Tattoo explores this phenomenon through both Dunn s coming to grips with getting older and her folks attempts to turn back the clock In a series of hilarious and heartwarming essays Dunn conspires with her sisters to finagle their way into the old family homestead dissects the whys and wherefores of her parents obsession with newspaper clippings confronts the seamy side of the JC Penney catalogs she paged through as a kid and accompanies her sixtysomething mother to a New Jersey tattoo parlor where Mom is giddy to get a raven inked onto her wrist And Dunn does it all with humor and insight A Christian Student'S Guide to Truth in Science Stanley J. O'Briant,2015-03-13 This book exposes the attempt to teach atheistic evolution to students often ridiculing their faith in God The classrooms in our schools have become the battlegrounds for the minds of our children Since the introduction of evolution by Charles Darwin there has been a growing list of atheist professors who vigorously fight any religion The classrooms of America should not be the battlegrounds of any religion but evolution is a religion It has no place in the classroom since it does not offer any information that improves the teaching of any science class except evolution itself There is no proof of evolution only assertions innuendos credulity belief without proof and suppositions Fully one third of all geology textbooks deal with evolution which is founded only opinion and undocumented assertions Therefore it should be removed from all textbooks Dr David Menton who taught medicine at the Washington School of Medicine in St Louis Missouri for twenty five years stated that he never once needed to reference evolution in any medical class A coalition of organizations such as the National Academy of Sciences whose members are 93% atheist or agnostic and the National Center for Science and Education control most of the government grants intended for schools use fully support the atheism of evolution and they attack any criticism of evolution

Saving Point Reyes Gerald Felix Warburg,2023-08-25 The Point Reyes National Seashore PRNS is not only a stunning piece of land the first large national park created from all private lands and the first large park adjacent a major metropolitan center but the fight to save this fragile ecosystem in the 1960s was a key turning point in the environmental movement and helped transform the political landscape of California and the nation Saving Point Reyes is an environmental policy history that draws on archival materials oral histories and new interviews with veteran federal policymakers to understand how legislative bargaining and grassroots politics succeeded in achieving this victory for environmental protection Gerald Warburg offers the first political history focused on the battles to preserve the unique series of fragile ecosystems that surround San Francisco and the definitive study of exactly how Point Reyes was saved Most accounts of this story only focus on the 1962 bill that created the PRNS on 53 000 acres of private lands just north of San Francisco But that was just the first act in the saga The passing of the bill only established the park in theory and the government only controlled 123 acres at Point Reyes In the months following the signing ceremony all three of the House Senate and White House champions of the Point Reyes legislation died leaving the PRNS without the leadership necessary to secure the funding to purchase the rest of the land What followed was an epic public policy battle to save Point Reyes Local grassroots lobbying organizations arose to advance the cause of PRNS and other environmental campaigns and their victory in 1970 laid the foundation for future environmental activism With this new funding the PRNS expanded to over 71 000 acres which then grew to 87 000 acres in 1972 with the creation of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area The legislative bargaining and grassroots politics in the fight to preserve Point Reyes helped create a tipping point profoundly altering the national environmental movement Warburg s deeply researched case study of NGO activism and congressional action is developed through a compelling narrative that offers specific lessons learned and hope for future environmental challenges from climate policy to public lands preservation     Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on House Administration United States.
