Fault Lines Nancy Huston:

Fault Lines Nancy Huston, 2018-09-01 A brilliantly written family epic that won France's Prix Femina and was shortlisted for the Orange Prize. An immaculate novel. The Guardian. In a profound and poetic story internationally acclaimed and bestselling author Nancy Huston traces four generations of a single family from present day California to WWII era Germany. Fault Lines begins with Sol, a gifted terrifying child whose mother believes he is destined for greatness partly because he has a birthmark like his dad, his grandmother and his great grandmother. When Sol's family makes an unexpected trip to Germany secrets begin to emerge about their history during World War II. It seems birthmarks are not all that's been passed down through the bloodlines. Closely observed, lyrically told and epic in scope, Fault Lines is a touching, fearless and unusual novel about four generations of children and their parents. The story moves from the West Coast of the United States to the East from Haifa to Toronto to Munich as secrets unwind back through time until a devastating truth about the family's origins is reached. Huston tells a riveting, vigorous tale in which love, music and faith rage against the shape of evil. Huston's powerful novel combines the pacing of a thriller with the emotional intricacies that are the hallmark of the best family stories. A woman explores complex family relationships and discovers truths about herself in this sensual, intricately woven offering from award-winning Huston. Kirkus Reviews. Nancy Huston follows her bestselling novel Fault Lines, winner of the Prix Femina, with an intensely provocative story about a passionate yet emotionally wounded woman's sexual explorations. After a troubled childhood and two failed marriages, Rena Greenblatt has achieved success as a photographer. She specializes in infrared techniques that expose her pictures, otherwise hidden landscapes and capture the raw essence of deeply private moments in the lives of her subjects.

Away from her lover and stuck in Florence Italy with her infuriating stepmother and her aging unwell father Rena confronts not only the masterpieces of the Renaissance but the banal inconveniences of a family holiday At the same time she finds herself traveling into dark and passionate memories that will lead to disturbing revelations Infrared is both an explicitly bold story of how sexuality is influenced by childhood family and culture and a portrait of a woman coming to terms with the end of her father's life With exceptional flair and intelligence Huston fearlessly investigates the links between family intimacies and our collective lives between destruction and creation Huston shows her mastery of complicated structure wide cultural knowledge and brilliant assured portraiture The Globe and Mail Top 100 Books of the Year There is something eminently subversive in Nancy Huston's latest novel A forty five year old woman dares to talk about her sexuality her immense desire for men But even more Infrared is a staggering expression of the power of art as salvation Voir

Culture Wars in British Literature Tracy J. Prince, 2012-09-21 The past century's culture wars that Britain has been consumed by but that few North Americans seem aware of have resulted in revised notions of Britishness and British literature Yet literary anthologies remain anchored to an archaic Anglo English interpretation of British literature Conflicts have been played out over specific national vs British identity some residents prefer to describe themselves as being from Scotland England Wales or Northern Ireland instead of Britain in debates over immigration race ethnicity class and gender and in arguments over British literature These debates are strikingly detailed in such chapters as The Difficulty Defining Black British British Jewish Writers and Xenophobia and the Booker Prize Connections are also drawn between civil rights movements in the U S and UK This generalist cultural study is a lively read and a fascinating glimpse into Britain's changing identity as reflected in 20th and 21st century British literature

Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment Odile Cazenave, Patricia Célrier, 2011-02-02 By looking at engaging literature from the recent past when the francophone African writer was implicitly seen as imparted with a mission to the present when such authors usually aspire to be acknowledged primarily for their work as writers Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment addresses the current processes of canonization in contemporary francophone African literature Odile Cazenave and Patricia Célrier argue that aesthetic as well as political issues are now at the forefront of debates about the African literary canon as writers and critics increasingly acknowledge the ideology of form Working across genres but focusing on the novel the authors take up the question of renewed forms of commitment in this literature Their selected writers range from Mongo Beti Ousmane Sembène and Aminata Sow Fall to Boubacar Boris Diop Véronique Tadjo Alain Mabanckou and Léonora Miano among others Vietnam and the Colonial

Condition of French Literature Leslie Barnes, 2014-12-01 Vietnam and the Colonial Condition of French Literature explores an aspect of modern French literature that has been consistently overlooked in literary histories the relationship between the colonies their cultures languages and people and formal shifts in French literary production Starting from the premise that neither cultural identity nor cultural production can be pure or homogenous Leslie Barnes initiates a new discourse on the French literary canon by examining the work of three iconic French writers with personal connections to Vietnam Andr Malraux Marguerite Duras and Linda L In a thorough investigation of the authors linguistic metaphysical and textual experiences of colonialism Barnes articulates a new way of reading French literature not as an inward looking homogenous monolingual tradition but rather as a tradition of intersecting and interdependent peoples cultures and experiences One of the few books to focus on Vietnam s position within francophone literary scholarship Barnes challenges traditional concepts of French cultural identity and offers a new perspective on canonicity and the division between French and francophone literature
