Government Gazette ,1902      Remembering Transitions Ksenia Robbe,2023-10-04 This volume offers critical perspectives on memories of political and socioeconomic transitions that took place between the 1970s and 1990s across the globe and that inaugurated the end of the Cold War The essays respond to a wealth of recent works of literature film theatre and other media in different languages that rethink the transformations of those decades in light of present day crises The authors scrutinize the enduring silences produced by established frameworks of memory and time and explore the mnemonic practices that challenge these frameworks by positing radical ambivalence or by articulating new perspectives and subjectivities As a whole the volume contributes to current debates and theory making in critical memory studies by reflecting on how the changing recollection of transitions constitutes a response to the crisis of memory and time regimes and how remembering these times as crises renders visible continuities between this past and the present It is a valuable resource for academics students practitioners and general readers interested in exploring the dynamics of memory in post authoritarian societies      Memory and Genocide Fazil Moradi,Ralph Buchenhorst,Maria Six-Hohenbalken,2017-04-07 This book focuses on the ethical aesthetic and scholarly dimensions of how genocide related works of art documentary films poetry and performance museums and monuments music dance image law memory narratives spiritual bonds and ruins are translated and take place as translations of acts of genocide It shows how genocide related modes of representation are acts of translation which displace and produce memory and acts of remembrance of genocidal violence as inheritance of the past in a future present Thus the possibility of representation is examined in light of what remains in the aftermath where the past and the future are inseparable companions and we find the idea of the untranslatability in acts of genocide By opening up both the past and lived experiences of genocidal violence as and through multiple acts of translation this volume marks a heterogeneous turn towards the future and one which will be of interest to all scholars and students of memory and genocide studies transitional justice sociology psychology and social anthropology      Islamic Psychology G. Hussein Rassool,2021-03-31 Islamic Psychology or ilm an nafs science of the soul is an important introductory textbook drawing on the latest evidence in the sub disciplines of psychology to provide a balanced and comprehensive view of human nature behaviour and experience Its foundation to develop theories about human nature is based upon the writings of the Qur an Sunna Muslim scholars and contemporary research findings Synthesising contemporary empirical psychology and Islamic psychology this book is holistic in both nature and process and includes the physical psychological social and spiritual dimensions of human behaviour and experience Through a broad and comprehensive scope the book addresses three main areas Context perspectives and the clinical applications of applied psychology from an Islamic approach This book is a core text on Islamic psychology for undergraduate and postgraduate students and those undertaking continuing professional development in Islamic psychology psychotherapy and counselling Beyond this it is also a good supporting resource for teachers and lecturers in this field      Jadid Al-Islam Raphael Patai, 2014-05-20 This study documents the history traditions tales customs and institutions of the Jadid al Islam New Muslims In 1839 Muslims attacked the Jews of Meshhed murdering 36 of them and forcing the conversion of the rest While some managed to escape across the Afghan border and some turned into true believing Muslims the majority adopted Islam only outwardly while secretly adhering to their Jewish faith Jadid al Islam is the fascinating story of how this community managed to survive at the risk of their lives as crypto Jews in an inimical Shi i Muslim environment Based on unpublished original Persian sources and interviews with members of the existing Meshhed community in Jerusalem and New York this study documents the history traditions tales customs and institutions of the Jadid al Islam New Muslims
