Feb Mar 2015 Memo:

Memorandum, 1927      Code of Federal Regulations, 2017      ,      Marriage Migration in Asia Sari K. Ishii, 2016-02-26 Men are disadvantaged in the marriage markets of many Asian countries and in some cases their response is to look abroad for a partner Receiving countries for marriage migrants include Japan Korea Taiwan Hong Kong and Singapore while the Philippines Thailand Vietnam Indonesia and parts of mainland China supply wives to these territories In the absence of uniform international regulations concerning the rights and obligations of partners such unions are treated differently in different jurisdiction In extreme cases migrants or their children become stateless and when marriages break down migrants sometimes face major legal problems In such circumstances marriage migrants are often portrayed as powerless uneducated victims Rejecting this perspective the authors in this volume explore the agency of women who migrate abroad to acquire opportunities unavailable to them in their homelands They show that the trajectories of marriage migrants are often not a simple movement from home to destination but can involve return repeated or extended migrations and that these transitions that can alter geographies of power in economics nationality or ethnicity Based on features shared by many marriage migrants the book identifies them as an emerging minority at the frontier of the nation state a group whose status may well carry over to future generations      Memorandum, 1940      International Financial Statistics, September 2016 International Monetary Fund. Statistics Dept., 2016-09-02 International Financial Statistics September 2016      Cash Not Care Mo Stewart, 2016-09-14 Mo Stewart is a former healthcare professional a disabled female veteran and an independent researcher This book is the culmination of six years of self funded research and the evidence exposes the influence of corporate America since 1992 with the future welfare reforms of the UK The impact of the enforced austerity measures of the UK government is identified as they negatively affect the welfare and the survival of the chronically sick and disabled population in receipt of welfare benefits when unfit to work The research has informed welfare reform debates in the House of Lords and the House of Commons since 2011 and contributed to the evidence used by the United Nations to investigate the UK government for breaches of the Human Rights of sick and disabled people Endorsed by the disabled community and by academics the research has identified the adoption of lethal social policies copied from American social security policies and linked to the death of thousands of the most vulnerable of all as the UK welfare state is systematically demolished as all planned over thirty years ago by a previous Conservative government      International Financial Statistics, August 2016 International Monetary Fund.
