

Man does not live for himself alone. He lived for the good of others as well as of himself. Everyone has his duties to perform the richest as well as the poorest. To some, life is pleasure, the other, suffering. But the best do not live for self-enjoyment or even for good cause. To do our duty in this world towards God and towards man, consistently and steadily, requires the cultivation of all the faculties which God has given us. And he has given us everything. It is knowledge of good and evil, the knowledge of what is right and what is wrong, that makes us responsible to man here and to God thereafter. The sphere of duty is infinite. Obedience to duty, at all costs and risks, is the very essence of highest civilized life.
