Planet Parent Monique Cohen, 2023-09-15 This book contains a magic wand which gives the parents the power to know all the right answers all of the time I wish you wish we all wish Sadly this book has no magic wand However it does have some very useful strategies and an understanding that perfect parenting like magic wands unicorns Griffiths and reliable computer technology is a myth The best we can all strive for is good enough most of the time Humour is a form of play used by children and adults alike and playing is one of the most effective forms of healing Planet Parent uses humour to help caregivers parents and grandparents better understand their child and adolescent This then creates the space to enjoy the beautiful moments of parenthood and to endure the not so beautiful moments The strategies outlined in this book are drawn from my training and experience as a child and adolescent psychotherapist of over 30 years and in my hilarious adventures with my own children It explores the outstanding and distressing facts about babies I never dreamed you would have to teach babies to sleep children and adolescents which I discovered in my journey as a mother The universal tribulations and pleasures that envelope all parents are discussed to emphasise the truth that parents are not alone there are many many of us parents This book encourages the understanding that parents have great power to nurture our child's resilience and that there can be hilarity and fun in the process
